MEDIA SERVICES FOR YANKEE GAMES

ADMISSION TO STADIUM: Enter through Press Gate, street level, near Gate 4. BBWAA cards, or credential issued by the New York Yankees necessary for admittance. NO OTHER CREDENTIAL WILL BE HONORED.

TO OBTAIN CREDENTIALS: Write or call the Yankees' Media Relations Department. Credentials will be issued only to legitimate newsgathering agencies. REQUESTS MUST BE MADE 24 HOURS IN ADVANCE OF GAME. ALL CREDENTIALS ARE NON-TRANSFERABLE.

MAIN PRESS BOX: Take elevator to Loge Level, follow signs to Press Box. DO NOT ENTER THROUGH YANKEE OFFICES. Please sit in assigned seats. If none is assigned, please sit in any unmarked or unassigned seat in back two rows of press box.

ELEVATORS TO MAIN PRESS BOX: Entrance is through the basement level near the press room.

PRESS WORKING ROOM: Open to those with BBWAA cards or applicable credentials issued by the New York Yankees. Coinless phones for collect or credit card calls available.

PRESS DINING ROOM: Open to those with BBWAA cards or applicable credentials issued by the New York Yankees. Meals will be served starting two hours prior to games for those with BBWAA Cards or credentials denoting early press room access. The room will remain open (bar service and snacks) for one hour after games for those with BBWAA Cards or credentials denoting late press room access.

CLUBHOUSES: Both clubhouses are on basement level; Yankees even with first base, visitors even with third base.

ENTRANCE TO YANKEE CLUBHOUSE: Open to those with BBWAA cards or applicable credentials issued by the New York Yankees. NO OTHER CREDENTIAL WILL BE HONORED. Clubhouse closed to all media one-half hour prior to all games, and between games of doubleheaders. At times, certain additional restrictions may be imposed. TRAINER'S ROOM AND PLAYER'S LOUNGE CLOSED TO ALL MEDIA AT ALL TIMES.

POST-GAME TV INTERVIEWS: Available upon request whenever possible. Please notify Yankees' media relations representatives so assistance can be provided.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers will not be permitted on the field during games. All photographers will work from assigned locations. NO ROVING PHOTO PASSES WILL BE ISSUED.

TELEVISION CREWS: Space for game highlights available on request. Crews will not be permitted on field during games. NO LIVE TRANSMISSION PERMITTED DURING GAMES. NO ROVING TV CREW PASSES WILL BE ISSUED.

ADMISSION TO FIELD: All media, with BBWAA cards or applicable credentials issued by the New York Yankees, are permitted on the field during pre-game practice. FOR SAFETY PURPOSES, ALL MEDIA MUST LEAVE THE FIELD ONCE THE BATTING CAGE IS REMOVED. DUGOUTS ARE TO BE CLEARED ONE-HALF HOUR PRIOR TO ALL GAMES. PLEASE DISPLAY PASSES AT ALL TIMES.

COMMUNICATION SERVICES: Available upon advance request for the press box during games and in the press room before and after games.

NOTES, RECORDS, ETC.: Statistics and press notes are available in the press box and working press room prior to games. Play-by-play sheets and post-game notes are available in the working press room after games.

MEDIA GUIDES: Yankee media guides and other clubs' media guides are available upon request in the press box, and can be obtained from Yankees' Media Relations representatives.

GLOSSY PHOTOS: When available, headshot sets will be forwarded to area print outlets.

NO AUTOGRAPHS: ANY MEMBER OF THE MEDIA REQUESTING AUTOGRAPHS FROM ANY PLAYER WILL HAVE PRESS ACCESS REVOKED.

GEORGE M. STEINBRENNER III

Every young man searching for his own place in today's world would be well advised to heed the advice and example of sportsman, business executive and civic leader, George M. Steinbrenner.

Steinbrenner, a national figure before he was 40, offers a succinct basic formula for success. "Work as hard as you ask others to. Strive for what you believe is right, no matter the odds. Learn that mistakes can be the best teacher of all." Certainly the meteoric career of this energetic son of a distinguished Great Lakes shipping family bears out the practical results of these simple beliefs.

In 1963, he entered the business world in earnest. In a way, it was a difficult adjustment for a man who had already been an assistant football coach at two Big Ten universities, Northwestern and Purdue, and put together national championship teams in both the National Industrial and American Basketball Leagues.

In the business world, Steinbrenner is Chairman of The American Shipbuilding Company which he and associates took over and revitalized in 1967. Under his early leadership American Ship tripled its annual revenues and since has climbed to the $200 million mark in annual sales.

In 1973, Steinbrenner put together the group which purchased the New York Yankees from CBS. As the Principal Owner, it took only five years for his keen foresight and aggressive leadership to turn the Yankees, once again, into World Champions.

Apart from corporate business and civic involvements, he devotes a great deal of time to his extensive interest in thoroughbred breeding and racing which includes his 800 acre stud farm in Florida, The Florida Breeders Sales Company and Florida Horse Magazine. In 1983 he was honored as the Industrialist of the Year in Florida. In partnership with James Nederlander of the famous theatrical family, he produced long-running, Tony Award winning musical, "Applause" and another musical hit, "See-Saw." They also put together highly successful national tours of "Funny Girl," "George M." and "On a Clear Day."

RICK BAY

Rick Bay, appointed as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of the Yankees shortly before the start of the 1988 season, has a distinguished career in sports administration.

Before joining the Yankees, he served as Athletic Director of Ohio State University from 1984 through 1987, where he supervised one of the nation's largest and most comprehensive athletic programs covering 30 intercollegiate sports and over 800 student-athletes. During his tenure at Ohio State he was responsible for a $20 million budget and instituted new marketing and promotional concepts that nearly tripled the department's fund-raising revenues. He also was instrumental in the construction and modernization of University athletic facilities and implemented an innovative drug education and testing program for Ohio State athletes.

Prior to his tenure at Ohio State, he was the Athletic Director at the University of Oregon from 1981 to 1984 and served in executive capacities with the University of Michigan Alumni Association from 1974 through 1978. A former wrestling coach at Michigan, he was named NCAA Coach of the Year in 1974, when he led the Wolverines to a second place finish in the NCAA Tournament.

Bay received his B.A. degree from Michigan, where he was one of the country's top intercollegiate wrestlers and a member of the football and freshman baseball teams after an outstanding high school career in all three sports. Bay, 45, is a native of Waukegan, Illinois, and he and his wife Denice resided in Columbus, Ohio before joining the Yankees.

WILLIAM F. DOWLING

Bill Dowling, Vice President and General Counsel of the Yankees, is beginning his third season with the club, with expanded duties in handling many of the club's day-to-day activities in addition to his responsibility for overseeing the team's legal matters. He played a large role in the negotiations resulting in the memorandum of agreement between the Yankees and the City and the State of New York that extended the team's lease at Yankee Stadium for 30 years, and he has supervised the Yankees' growth in such areas as television, radio, marketing, and merchandising.

Dowling joined the Yankees from the New York State Attorney General's Office, where he spent 6½ years as Deputy Chief Assistant Attorney General. He formerly served as an Assistant District Attorney in Manhattan.

Dowling, a native of Holyoke, Massachusetts, received his J.D. degree from Boston College Law School and his B.A. degree from Columbia University.

LOU PINIELLA

Lou Piniella was elevated to his position as Vice President and General Manager of the Yankees on October 19, 1987 after serving as the club's Manager the past two seasons. In 1986, his first season as Manager, he guided the Yankees to a 90-72 record (the fifth best mark in the major leagues) and a second place finish in the American League's Eastern Division. Last year, he had the club in first place for most of the season until injuries forced a fourth place finish with a 89-73 record. Overall in his two seasons as manager he posted a winning percentage of .552 (179-145).

One of the most popular Yankees during his playing career, he was recognized as a consistent and professional hitter. His .295 lifetime batting average with the Yankees ranks him 11th among the team's all-time leaders and he was always an excellent post-season performer. He led all Yankee hitters with a .438 average in the 1981 World Series, when he extended his personal Series hitting streak to nine consecutive games. Before joining the Yankees, he spent five years with the Kansas City Royals, winning the American League Rookie of the Year Award in 1969 and earning a selection to the A.L. All-Star team in 1972. He retired from the Yankees on June 17, 1984 and was named a Yankee coach, a position he held until he was named as Yankee Manager on October 17, 1985. He also was honored by the Yankees with Lou Piniella Day on August 5, 1984.

In his short tenure as Yankee General Manager, Piniella, 44, already has been involved in a number of acquisitions, such as the signings of Jack Clark and John Candelaria and the trades for Don Slaught, Rafael Santana, and Richard Dotson, that have signficantly improved the ballclub. In addition, he has played an important role in salary and contract negotiations as well as many of the club's other business interests while continuing to provide his expertise in such baseball related areas as player evaluation, acquisition and development.

A native of Tampa, Piniella, his wife Anita, and their three children reside in Allendale, New Jersey.

BOB QUINN

Bob Quinn, Yankee Vice President, Baseball Administration, is beginning his second full season with the team, with expanded contract negotiation and organizational responsibilities. He joined the club on September 22, 1986 as Assistant Vice President and was named to his current position on October 10th that year.

Before joining the Yankees, he spent 12 years with the Cleveland Indians, beginning in 1973 as Director of Scouting and Minor League Operations and eventually assumed the responsibility as Vice President/Player Development and Scouting.

Quinn, 51, has an extensive baseball background, beginning with his tenure as General Manager of the Eau Claire club of the Northern League (1959-60). After a stint in private business, he returned to baseball as GM of the Reading (Pa.) Phillies of the "AA" Eastern League (1967-68), where he was named the 1967 Minor League Executive of the Year. He served as GM of the "AAA" Omaha Royals of the American Association (1969-70), where he again was named Executive of the Year, in 1969. He moved up to the major leagues as Director of Minor League Operations for the Milwaukee Brewers (1971-72) before joining the Indians.

Quinn comes from a legendary baseball family; his grandfather, J. A. Quinn, was GM of four major league clubs, his father John was GM of the Boston Braves for 23 years and the Philadelphia Phillies for 13 years, and his brother Jack is President of the National Hockey League St. Louis Blues.

YANKEE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION, started by George Steinbrenner in 1974, is the only one of its kind in professional baseball. Former Yankee players with two years on the club are eligible, and over 400 are members. They each receive a pin, and a quarterly newsletter. Jim Ogle directs the association out of Ft. Lauderdale Stadium.

YANKEE STADIUM MONUMENT PARK

Since 1932 the New York Yankees have honored their greatest greats with the erection of monuments and plaques in the outfield section of Yankee Stadium.

On May 30, 1932 the first monument was dedicated to the memory of Miller Huggins, the diminutive manager who guided the Yankees to six American League pennants and three World Champions, who had suddenly died the year before.

The first plaque was placed on the centerfield wall in April, 1940, a tribute to Jacob Ruppert, the former owner who had built Yankee Stadium and brought the tradition of winning to the Yankees.

Two more monuments followed in 1941 for the "Captain" Lou Gehrig and in 1949 for slugger Babe Ruth.

Later plaques were placed in centerfield for General Manager Edward Barrow and the Yankees two great centerfielders, Joe DiMaggio and Mickey Mantle.

Originally the monuments and plaques were part of the playing field. The monuments and flag pole were located in straight-away centerfield on the warning track about ten feet in front of the wall. Sometimes long hits and fly balls forced fielders to go through or behind the monuments to retrieve the long drives.

As much of a tradition as the monuments and plaques themselves, was the tradition of allowing fans to exit Yankee Stadium through the centerfield gates via the warning track, pausing and reflecting on the achievements of these great men.

When Yankee Stadium was closed for renovation in 1974 and 1975, the monuments and plaques were relocated to the new Memorial Park between the Yankee and visiting bullpens. However, fans were not allowed to exit via the warning track and viewing of Memorial Park was only allowed at a great distance.

Thurman Munson Monument

In 1976 two more plaques were added memorializing managers Joe McCarthy and Casey Stengel.

In the '80's plaques have been dedicated to the following Yankee greats: Thurman Munson (1980), Roger Maris and Elston Howard (1984), Phil Rizzuto (1985), Billy Martin (1986) and Lefty Gomez and Whitey Ford (1987).

Two other plaques commemorating the visits of Pope Paul VI in 1965 and Pope Paul II in 1979 have been placed by the Knights of Columbus.

In 1985 the Yankees were again able to open up the monument park area for fan viewing with the moving in with the left-centerfield fence. Long lines and increased fan interest has caused the Yankees to move the fence in further and expand the monument park area. In addition, the Yankees have included a special walk honoring those Yankees who have had their uniform numbers retired.

RETIRED NUMBERS ... The Yankees have retired 12 uniform numbers, #1 Billy Martin (1986), #3 Babe Ruth (1948), #4 Lou Gehrig (1939), #5 Joe DiMaggio (1952), #7 Mickey Mantle (1969), #8 Bill Dickey and Yogi Berra (1972), #9 Roger Maris (1984), #10 Phil Rizzuto (1985), #15 Thurman Munson (1979), #16 Whitey Ford (1974), #32 Elston Howard (1984) and #37 Casey Stengel (1970).

NEW YORK YANKEES 1987 MONTH-BY-MONTH SUMMARY

SPRING TRAINING

The Yankees broke camp after compiling a 14-15 record ... during spring training the club hit .288, with 47 HRs and 179 runs scored—an average of 1.6 HRs and 6.2 runs scored, per game ... NY pitchers during the spring had a 4.85 ERA (137 ER, 254.0 IP), allowing 298 hits—an average of 1.2 hits per IP ... hitters with a good spring: Cerone—13-41, 3 HRs, 6 RBIs, .317 BA; Kittle—13-40, 3 HRs, 11 RBIs, .325 BA; Mattingly—25-80, 1 HR, 12 RBIs, .313 BA; Pagliarulo—23-72, 8 HRs, 18 RBIs, .319 BA; Tolleson—18-53, 0 HR, 5 RBIs, .340 BA; Ward—29-81, 5 HRs, 15 RBIs, .358 BA; Washington—19-54, 1 HR, 2 RBIs, .352 BA; honorable mention to Dan Pasqua, who finished ST with 8 HRs and a team leading 19 RBIs ... hitters with a poor spring: Skinner—8-46, 2 HRs, 10 RBIs, .174 BA; and Zuvella—5-24, 0 HR, 2 RBIs, .208 BA ... pitchers with a solid camp: Clements—0-0, 2.81 ERA, 9 games; Holland—1-0, 0.73 ERA, 10 games, Hudson—0-1, 3.18 ERA, 5 games; Rhoden—1-1, 1.13 ERA, 3 games; Shirley—2-0, 3.27 ERA, 5 games; and Stoddard—1-0, 3.27 ERA, 7 games ... pitchers with a sub-par spring: Guante—0-0, 8.27 ERA, 12 games; Rasmussen—3-2, 6.49 ERA, 6 games; and Righetti—0-2, 10.50 ERA, 11 games.

APRIL

OVERALL: The Yankees broke out of the 1987 starting gate by posting a 14-7 April record, .667 W/L pct.—only the second time the club won 14 games in April (other time was in '76, going 14-6) ... NY won its first two games of the year (winning each in the final at-bat) for the first time since 1981, and came off the season opening roadtrip 3-3, finishing at least .500 for such an excursion for the first time since going 3-1 in 1976 ... beginning with NY's home opener on April 13 through April 23, the Yankees reeled off 10 straight wins (including a perfect 9-0 first homestand), and moved to within a game of first place Milwaukee on the 23rd ... the 10-game winning streak was the club's longest since winning 11 in-a-row August 31 to September 12, 1985 ... the last time the Yankees swept an entire homestand as long as 9-games was September 1 to 10, 1961, sweeping a 12-game homestand ... 13-3 matched 1949 & '26 for the club's best start after 16 games ... the Bombers went 1-4 for the rest of the month to finish in second place, 4 GB of division leading Milwaukee ... '87 marked the first year since '69 the Yankees won both their season (on road) opener, and the home opener ... NY finished April 9-0 at home; 5-7 on the road ... 10-3 vs. east; 4-4 vs. west ... 7-4 vs. LHP; 7-3 vs. RHP ... 13-5 on grass; 1-2 on artificial turf ... 8-3 during day; 6-4 at night ... 6-3 in 1-run games ... and 1-0 in extra-inning games.

HIGHLIGHTS: The Yankees homered in seven straight games from April 20-26, hitting a total of 14 over the stretch ... on April 11 @ KC, NY downed the Royals 15-2, setting the season high for runs scored, and scored 12 runs and banged 11 hits in the seventh inning (both single inning highs)—the 6 doubles were also a season game high (3 by Mattingly) ... attendance of 55,162 on April 13 set a new Opening Day record at new Yankee Stadium ... Charles Hudson threw back-to-back complete games April 13 & 19 (1st gm) including a 7-hit shutout over KC on the 19th ...

TEAM HITTING: The Yankees team batting average of .267 (187-701) for April was fourth best in the A.L., and second best (behind Milwaukee's .295) among A.L. Eastern Division clubs ... Yankees hit 19 HRs and scored 115 runs.

TEAM PITCHING: New York's team ERA of 3.91 (80 ER, 184.0 IP) for April was fourth best in the A.L., and third best among Eastern rivals.

MAY

OVERALL: The Bombers used the month of May to thrust themselves into first place in the A.L. East, posting a 17-11 record (.607 W/L pct.) and bringing the season record to 31-18 (.633 W/L pct.) which at the time was the best record in baseball ... the club finished May two games in front of second place Toronto, but had a lead of as much as four games over the Jays as late as May 29 ... the four game bulge was the club's largest division lead since having a 4.5 game lead over Baltimore in 1980 ... the Yankees moved into sole possession of first place on May 16 for the first time since May 13, 1986, and maintained first place throughout the remainder of the month ... the 31-18 start through May matched that of the 1986 Yankees ... the longest Yankee winning streak in May was four games, thanks to a sweep of the Angels in Anaheim, May 22 to 25 ... what helped the Yankees in May was that the club never lost more than two straight, and only did that twice (May 19-20; May 29-30) ... Yanks in May were (season total in parenthesis): 7-5 (16-5) at home; 10-6 (15-13) on road ... 0-0 (10-3) vs. east; 17-11 (21-15) vs. west ... 4-2 (11-6) vs. left; 13-9 (20-12) vs. right ... 14-8 (27-13) on grass; 3-3 (4-5) on artificial turf ... 6-1 (14-4) during day; 11-10 (17-14) at night ... 3-3 (9-6) in 1-run games ... 2-0 (3-0) in extra-innings.

HIGHLIGHTS: On May 8 the Yankees won their 10th straight home game, becoming one of only eight teams in major league history to win the first 10 home games ... in that game of May 8 the Yankees set the season HR high with 5 (Ward-2, Pagliarulo-2 & Henderson) ... Yankee pitchers threw five complete games in six games, May 4 to 10 ... on May 15, Charles Hudson ran his record to 6-0—the best start by a Yankee pitcher since Tommy John began the '80 season 7-0 ... Yanks homered in 11 straight games, May 11 to 22 (21 HRs total), and homered in 16 of 17 games May 11 to 29 (31 HRs total) ... Yanks stole an '87 high 7 bases May 10 vs. Minnesota.

TEAM HITTING: The Yankees finished May hitting .267, third best in the A.L., and best among Eastern Division clubs ... specifically in May, the Yanks hit .267 (258-965) with 43 HRs, 148 runs scored.

TEAM PITCHING: By the end of May the Yankees' staff ERA of 3.87 (187 ER, 435.0 IP) was third best in the league, and second only to Toronto's 3.55 within the division ... in the month, the ERA was 3.84 (107 ER, 251.0 IP).

JUNE

OVERALL: The two-game lead the Yankees brought with them into June was short lived, opening the month going 4-6, falling 3 games behind Toronto by June 11 ... the biggest single blow was a three-game sweep of the Yankees by the Blue Jays, June 8 to 10, with the Yankees being outscored 22-3 (was the month's longest losing streak) ... at that point, however, instead of dying, the Bombers came on to win seven of their next eight games (including a five-game winning streak, June 15 to 19—longest of month), June 12 to 19, pulling to within percentage points of first ... the Yanks remained within one-game of Toronto through the remainder of the month ... they met the Jays head-to-head again from June 29 to July 1 in Toronto, this time winning three-straight, and opening up a three-game lead ... at June's end, the Yankees were 48-29, with a two-game lead ... NY went 16-10 in June ... Yanks in June were (season total in parenthesis): 10-6 (26-11) at home; 7-5 (22-18) on road ... 15-10 (25-13) vs. east: 2-1 (23-16) vs. west ... 6-5 (17-11) vs. left; 11-6 (31-18) vs. right ... 15-11 (42-24) on grass; 2-0 (6-5) on artificial turf ... 1-4 (15-8) during day; 16-7 (33-21) at night ... 6-1 (15-7) in one-run games ... 2-0 (5-0) in extra-inning games.

HIGHLIGHTS: Yankees played before the smallest home crowd of year, 18,244, June 3 vs. California ... but, on June 7 @ Milwaukee, Yanks play before 52,770, the season's largest road attendance ... on June 19 the Yanks score 5 runs in the 13th to down the Red Sox, 10-5 ... June 24, Yankees play their shortest game of '87, 2:09 @ Baltimore ... against Boston on June 26, the Yankees were trailing Roger Clemens 9-0 after 2.5 innings, but rallied to score 11 times in the third, eventually notching a 12-11 win in 10 innings (8 of the runs were charged to Clemens) ... on June 29 the Yankees beat the Blue Jays, 15-14, but that's not all ... NY boasted an 8-3 lead after three innings, but was outscored 11-3 over the next four innings (including a six-run Blue Jay seventh) to trail 14-11 after seven, but a Dave Winfield eighth inning grand slam gave NY enough for the victory ... that game was the Yankees' longest 9-inning game of '87—3:44 ... Yanks matched the '87 season high for HRs, hitting five (Winfield-2, Kittle, Mattingly & Pagliarulo) ... the 15 runs scored also matched the season high ... that win also vaulted the Yankees back into sole possession of first place, one game in front of Toronto.

TEAM HITTING: The Yankees ended June with a team average of .268, fourth best in the A.L., and to that point third best among Eastern Division clubs ... just in June, the Yanks hit .269 (257-954), with 32 HRs, 152 runs scored.

TEAM PITCHING: Come June's end, the Yankees' team ERA had swelled to 4.06 (310 ER, 687.2 IP), fourth best in the A.L., third in East behind Toronto & Detroit ... in the month, NY's team ERA was a high 4.38 (123 ER, 252.2 IP).

JULY

OVERALL: The Yankees rode atop the A.L. East for the entire month of July, going 15-11 (.577 W/L pct.) ... the club's overall season record was 63-40, good enough for a 2.5 game division lead by the end of the month ... 23 games over .500 equalled the most NY was over the break-even point all year ... from July 3 to the 12th, the Yankees played their longest homestand of '87, going 6-5 in 11-games ... it was within that homestand that NY's lead bulged to five games, July 4-5, the club's largest lead of '87 ... at the All-Star break (July 13-15), the Yankees were 55-34, in first place with a three-game division lead ... following the All-Star break, the Yankees took off on a 10-game roadtrip to Texas, Minnesota & Chicago, going 4-6, and saw their division lead shrink to half a game by the time they returned home on July 28 ... on July 27 the Yankees met the Atlanta Braves in the annual Hall of Fame game in Cooperstown, NY, with NY winning, 3-0 ... NY's win on July 26 @ Chicago began a five game month ending winning streak, including a three-game sweep over KC, July 28 to 30 in NY ... that winning streak enabled the Yanks to regain some of its lost lead ... Yanks in July were (season total in parenthesis): 10-5 (36-16) at home; 5-6 (27-24) on road ... 2-0 (27-13) vs. East; 13-11 (36-27) vs. West; 4-4 (21-15) vs. left; 11-7 (42-25) vs. right ... 13-9 (55-33) on grass; 2-2 (8-7) on artificial turf ... 6-3 (21-11) during day; 9-8 (42-29) at night ... 3-2 (18-9) in one-run games ... 1-1 (6-1) in extra-inning.

HIGHLIGHTS: On July 1, the Yankees complete a three-game sweep in Toronto, scoring 5 runs in the 12th inning to break a 1-1 tie ... July 7, the Yanks down 7-0 to Minnesota score 7 runs in the seventh and 5 runs in the eighth to beat the Twins, 12-7 ... that game marked the beginning of Mattingly's string of at least one extra-base hit in ten straight games, breaking the A.L. record previously set by Babe Ruth in 1921—that streak ended on July 19 ... from July 8 to 18th, Mattingly hit at least one home run in eight straight games, tying the major league record set in 1956 by Pittsburgh's Dale Long ... July 11 vs. Chicago, Ron Guidry K'd 14, and Yankee pitchers notched 19 on the day ... July 16 @ Texas, Claudell Washington tallied season high 4 runs and Mattingly set a personal career high with 7 RBIs ... July 19, Yankees suffer 20-3 loss @ Texas—most runs and hits (22) against in single game in '87 ... July 26, Yanks were no-hit @ Chicago by Richard Dotson for 7.1 innings, but an eighth inning three-run HR by Dan Pasqua spoiled the bid, and led NY to an eventual 5-2 win, snapping a 4-game losing streak ... July 31, Gary Ward's two-run HR with one-out in the ninth gave NY a 6-5 win over Detroit.

TEAM HITTING: The Yankees' team batting average fell to .265 by the end of July, falling to eighth best in the league, and fifth best among division rivals ... the average in July was .255 (225-881) with 34 HRs, 123 runs scored.

TEAM PITCHING: The Yankees team ERA shrank slightly in July, falling to 4.05, good enough for third best in the league, second in the A.L. East ... for July, the team ERA was 4.03 (106 ER, 237.0 IP).

AUGUST

OVERALL: As far as contention for the Eastern Division crown was concerned, August marked the beginning of the end for the 1987 Yankees ... the Yanks went 11-17 for the month, while the Tigers went 19-11, and the Blue Jays 17-12 ... NY ended the month in third place, 4 games behind first place Detroit ... the 2.5 lead the Yankees brought with them into August evaporated by the end of the first week, the Yankees going 2-5 to fall a half game back on August 7 ... the Bombers regained the division lead briefly on August 8, only to lose it for good on August 9, the date NY began a five-game losing streak (longest of '87) that extended to August 14 ... from August 6 to August 14 the Yanks lost seven of eight, going from half a game up to three games out ... the Yankees were on the road for the bulk of August, playing 10 and eight game roadtrips ... NY went 2-8 on the 10-game trip (from August 3 to August 12), and 4-4 in the eight-gamer (August 18 to 25) ... sandwiched in between those two killer roadtrips was a three-game series in NY vs. Cleveland in which the Yanks outscored the Indians 16-9, but lost two of the three ... the waning days of August brought the Yankees several mini winning and losing streaks: winning two, losing three, winning two, losing three, and winning three ... Yanks in August were (season totals in parenthesis): 5-5 (41-21) at home; 6-12 (33-36) on road ... 4-8 (31-21) vs. east; 7-9 (43-36) vs. west ... 3-6 (24-21) vs. left; 8-11 (50-36) vs. right ... 9-13 (64-46) on grass; 2-4 (10-11) on artificial turf ... 5-5 (26-16) during day; 6-12 (48-41) at night ... 2-4 (20-13) in one-run games ... 1-1 (7-2) in extra-innings.

HIGHLIGHTS: August 5, Brad Arnsberg pitched six scoreless innings vs. Cleveland, en route to his first major league win—losing pitcher was Phil Niekro, better than twice Arnsberg's age ... August 7, the Tigers downed the Yanks 8-0, knocking the Bronxites out of first place for the first time since June 28 ... August 8, the Yankees bang four home runs (Pasqua, Cerone, Mattingly & Ward) to back the two-hit shutout pitching of veteran Tommy John—only NY's second individual shutout of '87 ... August 19, Charles Hudson hurled eight shutout innings in relief of starter Tommy John (who left game with stomach disorder) as Yankees beat Seattle, 8-0 ... from August 18 through the 21st, NY hit 11 home runs over the four games ... August 23, Tim Stoddard's four innings of shutout relief preserved NY's 4-0 win over Oakland ... August 24, Mike Pagliarulo's tenth inning RBI double broke a 2-2 tie with California, giving the Yankees a 3-2 win ... August 31, Ron Guidry K's 10 A's as NY beat Oakland, 4-1.

TEAM HITTING: New York's overall team batting average nose dived to .260 by the end of August, 12th best in the league, last among teams in the Eastern Division ... for the month, the Yanks hit .240 (228-949), with 36 HRs, 104 runs scored.

TEAM PITCHING: NY's team ERA rose drastically in August to 4.25 by the end of the month, fifth best in the A.L., and third best in the A.L. East ... August saw Yankee pitching boast a 5.02 ERA (137 ER, 245.2 IP)—the highest single month in '87.

SEPTEMBER/OCTOBER

OVERALL: With a month plus four days to go in the season and depleted by injuries, the best the Yankees could muster for a pennant drive was a 13-14 September, and a 2-2 October, ending the season in fourth place, a full 9 games behind the Tigers ... meanwhile, Detroit went 17-12 in September and 4-0 in October; Toronto went 19-9 in September, 0-3 in October; and Milwaukee went 20-9 in September, 1-2 in October ... Milwaukee's performance was so strong that the Brewers came on to move into third place on September 12, knocking the Yankees back to fourth ... for the Yankees, September began 3-1, and 4-2, but a four-game losing streak from September 8 to 12 took NY from 4.5 games back and third place to 7 games out and fourth place ... between September 12 and the 22nd, the Yankees and Brewers went back and forth between third and fourth place ... also, between September 12 and 20th, the Yankees alternated losses and wins over a nine-game period ... the Yankees dropped to 10.5 games out from September 24 to 27th—the furthest from the division lead all season ... NY went 4-2 over the last portion of September to move 8.5 games back by the end of the month with an overall record of 87-71 ... the last out of the '87 season came at 4:05 pm, the afternoon of October 4 ... Yanks over final 31 games were (season totals in parenthesis): 10-9 (51-30) at home; 5-7 (38-43) on road ... 12-14 (43-35) vs. east; 3-2 (46-38) vs. west ... 8-9 (32-30) vs. left; 7-7 (57-43) vs. right ... 14-14 (76-60) on grass; 1-2 (11-13) on artificial turf ... 4-5 (30-21) during day; 11-11 (59-52) at night ... 4-3 (24-16) in one-run games ... 1-2 (8-4) in extra-innings.

HIGHLIGHTS: September 2, Jerry Royster's tenth-inning single broke a 2-2 tie to give the Yankees a 3-2 win over Oakland at Yankee Stadium ... September 8 @ Boston, Mike Easler's apparent 3-run home run is ruled foul by first base umpire Larry McCoy although television replay from many angles showed ball to be fair—Yanks lost to Red Sox, 8-6 ... September 22 @ Milwaukee (2nd gm), Bombers bang out a season high 20 hits en route to a 10-8 win over the Brewers ... September 29 at the Stadium, Charles Hudson hurled NY's third complete game shutout of '87 (his second) ... in that same game, Don Mattingly slammed his way again into the record books, this time hitting his sixth grand slam ... the upper deck blast came off Bosox pitcher Bruce Hurst, and enabled Mattingly to break the major league record previously set by Ernie Banks (1955) and Jim Gentile (1961).

TEAM HITTING: The Yankees raised their team batting average to .262 over the last 31 games covering September and October; completing 1987 ninth in the league; sixth best in the Eastern Division (Baltimore was the only east club with a lower team BA) ... over the last 31 games, the Yanks hit .273 (290-1061), with 32 HRs, and 146 runs.

TEAM PITCHING: NY's team ERA rose to 4.36 by the completion of '87—sixth best in the league, third best in the Eastern Division (Toronto—3.74; Detroit—4.02) ... over the final 31 games NY pitching posted an ERA of 4.79 (147 ER, 276.0 IP).

OFF-SEASON

The off-season was a busy time ... on October 19th, Woody Woodward resigned his position as Yankee General Manager ... Lou Piniella was elevated to that position, while Billy Martin replaced Piniella as the Yankee manager, marking his fifth tenure as the club's skipper ... on October 31st, the Yankees and the City and the State of New York signed a memorandum of understanding to extend the Yankee Stadium lease for 30 years, through 2032, in exchange for Stadium and area improvements ... the Yankees obtained catcher Don Slaught from the Texas Rangers on Nov. 2nd for a player to be named later (Brad Arnsberg was sent to Texas on November 10th to complete the trade), while Richard Dotson and Scott Nielsen were obtained from the Chicago White Sox on Nov. 13th in exchange for Dan Pasqua, Mark Salas, and Steve Rosenberg ... Steve Shields was signed as a six-year minor league free agent on Nov. 19th ... in the first-ever major league trade between the Mets and the Yankees, the Yanks obtained shortstop Rafael Santana and minor league pitcher Victor Garcia from the Mets on Dec. 11th, the last day of the Dallas winter meetings, in exchange for Phil Lombardi, Darren Reed, and Steve Frey ... the Yanks then acquired pitchers Lee Guetterman and Clay Parker from the Seattle Mariners on Dec. 22nd in exchange for Steve Trout and Henry Cotto ... they also signed two of their own free agents, pitchers Tommy John (to a one-year contract on Dec. 21st) and Dave Righetti (to a three-year contract on Dec. 23rd) as the year reached its conclusion ... the Yanks opened 1988 with a bang, signing free agent Jack Clark to a two-year contract on January 6th ... they followed that by signing Don Mattingly to a three-year contract on January 11th, and then signed free agent pitcher John Candelaria to a one-year contract (with an option year) on January 18th in one of their final moves before the start of spring training.

DID YOU KNOW ... The Yankees have won doubleheaders via shutouts in both games 14 times, most recently on April 19, 1987 when Charles Hudson and a combined Tommy John, Pat Clements and Dave Righetti shutout stopped the Royals at Yankee Stadium. It's happened to the Yankees only four times, most recently on July 27, 1975 when Bill Lee and Roger Moret of Boston shut down the Yankees at Shea Stadium.

GRAND SLAMS, 1987

The Yankees hit ten grand slams in 1987, tying the major league single season club record, which was set by the Detroit Tigers in 1938. The Yankees tied a major league and a club record by hitting two grand slams in the same game, on June 29, 1987 (one each by Don Mattingly and Dave Winfield) at Toronto's Exhibition Stadium. The major league record is held by many clubs, while the Yankee record was set once before when Tony Lazzeri hit two slams on May 24, 1936 vs. Philadelphia. Finally, Mattingly's six grand slams in 1987 set a new major league record for most grand slams hit by an individual in a single season, breaking the previous record of five slams, hit by the Cubs' Ernie Banks in 1955 and the Orioles' Jim Gentile in 1961.

ABOUT ONE-HITTERS

Yankee pitchers have hurled 49 one-hitters over the years, the most recent being by Joe Niekro and Al Holland on June 4, 1986 at California in which Gary Pettis had a 2-out double to right off Niekro in the 8th inning. The Yankees won the game, 11-0, with Niekro pitching eight innings and Holland hurling one. Bob Turley and Whitey Ford each hurled 3 one-hitters for the Yanks, and both men participated in a fourth. Luis Tiant, also, pitched 3 for the Yanks. Bob Shawkey, Rip Collins, Lefty Gomez, Vic Raschi and Floyd Bevens, each threw two one-hitters, with one of Bevens' coming in a World Series.

The Yankees have been one-hit 45 times, including once last year, on August 3, 1987 at Cleveland by the Indians' Tom Candiotti. Candiotti issued a walk to Dave Winfield leading off the second inning, but other than that retired every batter he faced through seven innings before Mike Easler led off the eighth inning with a single to right field. Candiotti went on to get the Yankees out in order after that in the eighth and ninth innings to finish with a one-hit, 2-0 win. The Yankees were close to being no-hit on two other occasions. On April 10th in Kansas City, the Royals' Bret Saberhagen had a no-hitter through 7.1 innings before Dan Pasqua doubled with one out in the eighth inning. Wayne Tolleson added a single in the ninth to leave Saberhagen with a two-hit, 13-1 victory. On July 26th at Comiskey Park, Chicago's Richard Dotson retired the first 22 Yankees he faced (covering 7.1 innings) before Mike Pagliarulo ended the no-hitter with a sharp single to right field with one out in the eighth inning. After Mike Easler followed with a double, Dan Pasqua hit a three-run pinch-hit home run to lead the Yankees to an eventual 5-2 win, with Dotson getting the loss.

The Yankees have been one-hit 17 times since they were last no-hit in 1958. Joe Wood, Earl Hamilton, and Nolan Ryan are the only men with a pair of one-hitters against New York, with both of Hamilton's coming in 1913. No-hit pitcher Hoyt Wilhelm also one-hit the Yankees in 1959.

Horace Clarke and Don Mattingly are the only Yankees to twice serve as spoilers. Clarke had the only hit in no-hit bids by Jim Palmer and Joe Niekro. In 1970 Clarke broke up three no-hitters in the 9th inning in one month, two of which wound up being more than one-hitters. On May 2, 1984 Mattingly ruined a perfect game at Chicago for LaMarr Hoyt with a wind-blown single in the 7th inning and two years ago broke up Moose Haas' no-hit bid.

Of recent vintage, Bob Ojeda of Boston took a no-hit into the 9th inning at Yankee Stadium 9/12/81 only to have Rick Cerone leadoff with a double followed by a Dave Winfield double.

1956	Don Larsen

The Yankees were the first team to wear uniform numbers regularly (1929), and their numbers have always been a source of fascination. More numbers are retired than on any other team . . . Did you know that Joe DiMaggio was #9 as a rookie? Yogi Berra was #35? Mickey Mantle #6? Whitey Ford #19? Thurman Munson #28? Billy Martin #12? Current Yankees who wore other numbers are Don Mattingly #46, Mike Pagliarulo #6, #46 and Dave Righetti #56.

#3—BABE RUTH

Born, February 6, 1895, died, August 16, 1948. Threw and batted left-handed, Boston-New York, A.L.; Boston, N.L., 1914-1935. The greatest drawing card, the Yankees' greatest home run hitter, an outstanding pitcher and the most colorful figure in the history of baseball. Hit 714 home runs in addition to 15 World Series homers. The "Babe" compiled a lifetime average of .342, won 92 games as a pitcher and played in 10 World Series during his action-packed 22 years. Elected to Hall of Fame 1936.

#4—LOU GEHRIG

Born, June 19, 1903, died, June 2, 1941. Threw and batted lefthanded. New York Yankees 1923-1939. The "Iron-Horse" played in 2130 consecutive games, a virtually unapproachable record, hit 493 home runs, 10 World Series homers, compiled a lifetime average of .340, was named the American League's Most Valuable Player 3 times, and amassed more than a score of major and league records. Elected to Hall of Fame 1939.

#5—JOE DIMAGGIO

Born, November 25, 1914. Threw and batted righthanded. New York Yankees 1936-1951. The "Yankee Clipper" considered the greatest centerfielder of modern baseball, hit in 56 consecutive games, a major league record, in 1941; hit 361 home runs, 8 World Series homers, compiled a lifetime average of .325, was named the American League's Most Valuable Player three times and holder of numerous batting and World Series records. Elected to Hall of Fame 1955.

#7—MICKEY MANTLE

Born, October 20, 1931. Switch-hitter threw right. New York Yankees, 1951-68. The most popular player of his era, a man cheered in every ballpark he played in. Winner of the Triple Crown in 1956. Led league in home runs four times, ending career with 536, third highest in history at the time. Holds record for most World Series homers with 18, accomplished in 12 World Series. Selected for 20 All-Star Games. 3 times MVP (1956-57-62). Won Hickock Belt in 1956. Played more games (2401) than any Yankee despite injury plagued career. Elected to Hall of Fame 1974.

JOE DIMAGGIO'S HITTING STREAK

Starting on Thursday, May 15, 1941 in Yankee Stadium and continuing until Thursday night, July 17 in Cleveland's Municipal Stadium, where he was finally stopped by pitchers Al Smith and Jim Bagby, DiMaggio piled up this amazing mark:

Consecutive games hit safely	56	Home Runs	15
At bats	223	Triples	4
Hits	91	Doubles	16
Average for streak	.408	Singles	56
Total bases for streak	160	Strikeouts	7
Runs scored	56	Bases on Balls	21
RBIs	55	Hit by pitcher	2

DID YOU KNOW . . . that the Yankees have won four games by forfeit . . . July 2, 1906, the Yankees were awarded the second game of a doubleheader at Philadelphia when they were leading 5-1 in the ninth and the crowd moved out onto the field . . . later that same year at New York vs Philadelphia, the Yankees again won by forfeit when the A's, protesting a play on which the Yankees tied the score 3-3 in ninth, refused to take the field after a lengthy argument with the umpire . . . on June 13, 1924 at Detroit, the Yankees won by forfeit after leading 10-6 going into the ninth inning when a beanball incident resulted in a bench and stand clearing fight . . . finally on September 30, 1971 at Washington the Yankees were losing 7-5 in the ninth when the fans, knowing it was the last game of the season and that the team would move to Texas for the next season, poured onto the field and began tearing it up for souvenirs.

GREAT GAMES . . .Myrl Hoag had six singles in a game, June 6, 1934, Johnny Lindell (8/17/44) and Jim Mason (7/8/74) had four doubles in a game. Hal Chase (8/30/06), Earle Combs (9/22/27) and Joe DiMaggio (8/27/38) had three triples in a game. Lou Gehrig had 16 total bases on June 3, 1932. Tony Lazzeri drove in 11 runs on 5/24/36; ten Yankees have had eight RBI in a game, most recently Elston Howard (8/19/62). Nine Yankees have had five walks in a game, most recently Maris (5/22/62). Eleven Yankees have scored five runs in a game, most recently Bobby Murcer (6/3/72).

James P. Dawson Award

The James P. Dawson Award was established in honor of the late sportswriter of the New York Times who died while covering the Yankees during spring training. It is presented annually to the outstanding rookie in spring training. Two former winners of the award, Tony Kubek in 1957 and Tom Tresh in 1962, went on to win American League Rookie of the Year honors. The award was first presented to rookie Norm Siebern by manager Casey Stengel in St. Petersburg at the conclusion of spring training in 1956. Media personnel who regularly cover the Yankees vote to decide the winner.

BOYER, CLETIS LEROY "Clete" (Coach) #40

6-0, 195. Born 2/8/37 in Cassville, MO. Age 51, turned 51 February 8. Resides in Bellair Beach, FL. BR. TR.

After serving as a Yankee minor league instructor last season, Boyer is reunited with Billy Martin and will serve as Martin's third base coach this year ... he has spent nine years as a coach, including six years as third base coach for the Oakland A's, joining Billy Martin's staff at Oakland in 1980 after a three-year coaching stint with the Atlanta Braves ... Boyer played 16 years in the major leagues, starting his career in 1955 with the Kansas City A's ... played with the A's from 1955 to 1958, and then was traded to the Yankees along with Art Ditmar, Bobby Schantz, Jack McMahon and Wayne Beladi in exchange for Walter Coleman, Tom Morgan, Mickey McDermott, Billy Hunter, Milt Graff and Irv Noren ... became the Yankees' regular third baseman in 1960, and he played in five World Series in New York ... his seventh inning home run in the first game of the 1962 World Series against the San Francisco Giants broke a 2-2 tie and gave Whitey Ford his 10th World Series victory ... Boyer batted .318 in the 1962 Series, following his best year with the Yankees when he batted a career high .272 with 18 home runs and 66 runs batted in while playing in 157 games, all at third base ... set a World Series record for most assists by a third baseman in Series play (65) that stood until Graig Nettles broke it in 1984, and is tied with five others for most double plays started by a third baseman in a nine inning Series game (2) ... was traded to the Atlanta Braves on November 29, 1966 for Bill Robinson and Chi Chi Olivo ... played five years for the Braves and had his most productive year in Atlanta in 1967, with career highs in home runs (26) and RBIs (96) while batting .245 ... led National League third basemen in fielding in 1967 and in 1969 ... is fifth on the all-time fielding list for third basemen ... has also played shortstop and second base in his career, along with one game in the outfield in 1961 ... banged out five grand slam home runs in his career ... after leaving Atlanta in 1971 he spent time playing in Japan and then rejoined the Braves prior to the 1977 season ... a member of a great baseball family, including brothers Ken and Cloyd.

Led International League shortstops in putouts with 222 and assists with 371 in 1958.

Led American League third basemen in assists with 373 in 1961.

Led American League third basemen in putouts with 187, assists with 396 and double plays with 41 in 1962.

Led American League third basemen in assists with 354 and double plays with 46 in 1965.

Led National League third basemen in fielding percentage with .970 in 1967.

Led National League third basemen in fielding percentage with .965 in 1969.

CERONE, RICHARD ALDO "Rick" (C) #6

5-11, 195. BR. TR. Born 5/19/54 in Newark, NJ. Age 33, turns 34 on May 19. Resides in Cresskill, NJ. Married: Michele DeCarlo, 10/29/83. Child: Jessica, 8/7/87. College: Graduated Seton Hall University, 1976.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 11 years, 26 days.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed contract for 1988 season.

1987 SEASON: Played in 113 games in 1987 (including 85 starts at catcher), the third highest total of his career ... finished the season by starting 23 of New York's last 29 games behind the plate ... hit .243 (69-284) with four home runs and 23 RBIs ... had an eight-game hitting streak from August 5-12 (10-32, .313) ... his home run off Kansas City's Bob Stoddard on July 30th at Yankee Stadium was his first HR at the Stadium since July 18, 1982 vs Oakland ... on September 7th at Boston went 3-4 with a home run, his only three-hit game of the season ... on October 3rd vs Baltimore he hit his first triple since September 25, 1981, also against the Orioles ... caught 23 of 74 runners attempting to steal (31%) ... committed only one error all season (July 4th vs Texas) in 577 chances to lead American League catchers in fielding ... made his first (and only) career appearance at first base on July 3rd vs. Texas (Game 1), replacing Don Mattingly defensively ... made his first career appearance on the mound on July 19th at Texas in a game the Yankees lost 20-3 ... pitched 1.0 inning in that game, giving up no runs and no hits, retiring all three batters he faced, including a strikeout of pinch-hitter Bobby Witt, a Ranger pitcher ... made his second pitching appearance of his career in New York's 15-4 loss at Detroit on August 9th, pitching the final inning and in his 1.0 IP allowing one walk and retiring his other three batters faced ... so in his total of 2.0 IP he allowed no runs or hits, with one walk, one strikeout, and retired six of the seven batters he faced ... he was the first Yankee regular to pitch in a game since Gene Michael on August 26, 1968 (Game 2) vs California in a 10-2 Yankee defeat, allowing five unearned runs in 3.0 innings pitched, giving up five hits and recording three strikeouts ... (ironically, the previous day, (August 25, 1968, Game 1) Rocky Colavito, normally an outfielder, picked up a win vs. Detroit pitching in relief) ... finished the season with a total of 15 multi-hit games ... had two game-winning RBIs, on May 22nd at California, and on June 15th vs Baltimore ... at the All-Star break was hitting .213 (30-141) in 56 games, but hit .266 (38-143) in 57 games the rest of the way ... reached a high point with a .252 batting average on August 23rd ... was signed by the Yankees as a free agent on February 13, 1987.

CAREER: 1986—Cerone reported to Atlanta's spring training facility in West Palm Beach, but was traded to the Milwaukee Brewers along with two minor leaguers for veteran catcher Ted Simmons on March 5th ... Cerone played in just 68 games for Milwaukee, used mainly as a back-up to catchers Charlie Moore and Bill Schroeder ... although appearing in second fewest number of games since reaching the majors to stay, his .259 batting average was second only to career best BA of .277 in 1980 ... was one of five catchers to throw out Rickey Henderson attempting to steal a base ... '86 was the first season since 1983 he did not spend any time on the disabled list ... had 3 RBIs in 8/23 game vs KC ... homered in back-to-back games on May 16th and 18th vs Minnesota ... longest hitting streak of the year was five games, September 1-23 ... 1985—hit .341 in last 11 spring training games, clinching the job as starting catcher for Atlanta ... was hitting .438 through 4/22, but dropped to .297 through 5/7 ... Cerone started 76 games as catcher compared to Bruce Benedict's 78 ... hit 2 HRs in first 30 at-bats with Atlanta; had only 2 HRs in last 236 at-bats with Yankees in '83 & '84 ... despite shoulder injury, threw out 18 of 48 runners attempting to steal ... he strained the posterior deltoid muscle in right shoulder while batting on 6/5 ... had second 4-hit game of career, 4/15 vs. Reds ... 1984—between injuries and platooning, played in fewest games since 1977 ... first hit of year was 3-run HR vs KC on 4/5 ... spent time on the DL from May 7 through July 5 with a strained right elbow, and was assigned to Columbus on June 29 under MLB rehabilitation program ... after rejoining Yankees, suffered an abrasion on right hand during fight in California, 9/2 and a stiff neck later the same month ... Yankees were 0-10 with Rick in the line-up before going on the DL, but were 18-10 after his return ... 1983—appeared in almost half of Yankees' games ... his 3-run HR was difference in 8-7 win at Minnesota on May 7 ... had 8-game hitting streak from July 29 to August 14 ... platooned most of the year with Butch Wynegar ... 1982—for second consecutive season suffered a major injury ... broke left thumb on tag play at plate in California, 5/11 ... spent 2 months on disabled list, missing 53 games ... production at plate off due to injury, but hit .319 (19/47) with 2 HRs and 8 RBIs in last 13 games ... 1981—production off slightly from 1980 season, mainly because of injury ... broke right thumb on foul tip in Texas, 4/18, missing 32 games ... activated from DL on 5/24, and next day began 12-game hitting streak, second longest of season by Yankee ... broke-up Boston pitcher Bob Ojeda's bid for a no-hitter with pinch-hit lead-off double in ninth inning at Stadium, 9/12 ... hit 2 HRs, both at Stadium ... topped Yankees with 5 RBIs in division series vs. Milwaukee ... 1980—responded to pressure-filled first year as Yankee by having the best season of his career ... named to UPI and Sporting News A.L. All-Star teams ... finished 7th in voting for A.L. MVP (behind: Brett, Jackson, Gossage, Wilson, Cooper and Murray) ... led Yankees in games with 147, all but one start as a catcher ... finished second to Jackson with 85 RBI, four more than his previous 2-years combined ... hit .315 with runners in scoring position ... had 6 RBIs on May 26th, including first career grand slam ... all 6 RBI came after the batter in front of him was intentionally walked ... was 6/11 with 14 RBI hitting after the batter in front of him was intentionally walked ... defensively, started first 54 games before resting ... easily led league by throwing out 47% of potential base stealers (47/99) ... 1979—batted just .219 through All-Star break for Blue Jays, but hit .261 after the break to finish at .239 ... had 10-game hitting streak, 8/14-27 ... 61 RBIs were 4th on club ... was 3rd with 4 triples and 27 doubles ... T2nd on club with 6 GWRBI ... 1978—Rick's first full season in majors ... hit .302 in August ... threw out Ron LeFlore to end his consecutive stolen base streak at 27 ... 1977—was starting catcher in Toronto's first game, but broke thumb five days into the season ... was optioned to Charleston to get back into shape, and upon his return he homered off Nelson Briles ... threw out Mitchell Page to end his consecutive stolen base streak at 26 ... 1976—started season at Toledo, and was called up to Indians after injury to Alan Ashby ... appeared in 7 games for Tribe ... was traded to Blue Jays on December 6 ... was International League's All-Star catcher while with Toledo ... 1975—his first year in professional ball, was called up to the Indians on August 15, after just 46 games with Oklahoma City ... appeared in 7 games for Indians, getting first big league hit off KC's Paul Splittorff, August 22 ... 1974—was Cleveland's number one selection in June Free-Agent Draft.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Cerone was a 1976 graduate of Seton Hall University where he made Academic All-American in baseball in '74 & 75, and was also on the fencing team ... twice helped the Pirates to a berth in the College World Series ... he hit .410 in his senior year, and set school records in homers, RBI, and total bases ... he played on the Pan American team in 1974 and USA World team in 1973 ... he graduated from Essex Catholic High School (NJ) in 1972 where he was an All-State athlete in football, baseball, and fencing ... Rick married the former Michele DeCarlo on October 29, 1983 ... he enjoys golf, racquetball and photography.

Led A.L. catchers in fielding percentage with .998 in 1987.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 11 years, 52 days.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed 2-year contract as free-agent, January 6, 1988.

1987 SEASON: Supplied St. Louis with enough offensive punch to lead Cards to second N.L. pennant out of three years there ... got off to a hot start, hitting safely in 36 of first 44 games through 5/29, going 53-154, .344 BA with 34 runs, 15 HRs, 48 RBIs & 5 GWRBIs ... hit in 10 straight, 5/13 through 5/24, going 14-34, .412 BA with 17 RBIs, raising overall BA to season high .345 ... BA dipped to .301 from 6/1 through 7/5, going 29-110, .264 BA in 31 games, with 9 HRs, 31 RBIs ... after 4/21, first time BA fell to below .300 was 7/26, falling to .298 ... went 3-29 from 7/23 through 8/13, .103 BA with overall BA falling from .305 to .288 ... BA fluctuated from .284 to .296 for rest of season ... hit just 2 HRs in last 21 games ... 8 of his 15 GWRBIs came on HRs ... batted .500, 6-12 with 3 HRs and 7 RBIs in extra innings ... missed 8 games after suffering contusion on right arm and shoulder in collision with Mets' Mookie Wilson on July 29 ... after the collision with Mookie went 22-91, .242 BA with 6 HRs & 15 RBIs in final 33 games of '87 ... 2-HR games came: 4/22 vs. Chicago; 5/10 @ L.A.; 5/28 vs. Atlanta; 6/18 vs. Pittsburgh; 7/19 @ S.D.; & 8/16 vs. Philadelphia ... 4 RBI games: 5/24 @ Houston; 6/18 vs. Pittsburgh; & 7/3 @ Atlanta.

GENERAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Led N.L. with .597 slugging pct. & .459 on-base pct. ... 106 RBIs ranked fourth in league, while 15 GWRBIs ranked fifth, and 35 HRs ranked a tie for sixth ... established career highs with 35 HRs, 106 RBIs, 136 walks, and 139 strikeouts ... his 35 HRs were most by a Cardinal since Stan Musial hit 35 in 1954, and the last Cardinal to hit more than 35 HRs was Musial in '49 (36) ... his 6 multiple HR games were most by a Cardinal since Johnny Mize had 6 in 1940 ... established a new record for HRs at Busch Stadium with 17 ...

homered against every club in each N.L. park except Cincinnati and S.F. ... 15 GWRBIs led club ... hit 200th career HR 4/28 vs. San Diego off Andy Hawkins ... surpassed 1986 HR total with 10th dinger, 5/10 vs. Cincy ... had 9 HR and 35 RBIs in May ... named N.L. Player of the Week, May 18-24, going 9-19, .474 BA with 2 HRs, 12 RBI & 10 walks ... walked in 16 straight games (28 walks total), setting new N.L. record for consecutive games with a walk, 7/8 through 8/10 ... equalled N.L. record with 6 walks in doubleheader, 7/8 vs. Los Angeles on way to M.L. high 41 walks in July ... set a Cardinal club record with 136 walks ... total of 139 strikeouts is a new Cardinal record, breaking Lou Brock's mark of 134 Ks in 1966 ... Cards averaged 5.31 runs in games he started and 3.60 runs in games he did not start.

ANKLE INJURY: Suffered a ligament tear in right ankle trying to avoid a tag while running to first base, September 9 @ Montreal that forced him to miss 24 games ... injury was first thought to be a sprained ankle ... made pinch-hit appearance 9/25 @ Chicago, but removed himself after falling down while attempting to swing ... also made pinch-hit appearances on 10/3 & 10/4, going 0-2 ... the injury limited him to 1 at bat in the N.L.C.S. and sidelined him for the entire World Series.

DOTSON, RICHARD ELLIOTT "Dot" (RHP) #36

6-0, 203. Born 1/10/59 in Cincinnati, O. Age 29, turned 29 on January 10. Resides in Sarasota, FL. BR. TR. Married: Jane Jurasek. Child: Rachel Elizabeth (2).

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 8 years and 31 days.

CONTRACT STATUS: In first of two option years following four-year contract.

1987 SEASON: Dotson was acquired from the Chicago White Sox along with pitcher Scott Nielsen on November 13, 1987, in exchange for outfielder Dan Pasqua, catcher Mark Salas, and lefthand pitcher Steve Rosenberg ... finished with a record of 11-12 in 31 games (all starts) with the White Sox in 1987, marking the sixth time he reached double figures in wins in his seven full seasons with the Sox (excluding his injury-plagued 1985 campaign) ... posted a 4.17 ERA with 86 walks and 114 strikeouts in 211.1 innings pitched (the third highest IP total of his career) ... his 114 strikeouts is the third highest single season total of his career and he now has recorded 100 or more strikeouts in six of his seven full seasons ... finished tied for second on the White Sox in wins, second in innings pitched, and third in strikeouts ... had seven complete games, including two shutouts (a five-hit 5-0 win vs Texas on May 15th and a six-hit 1-0 victory at Toronto on August 15th) ... missed three starts after suffering a sore right shoulder on September 9th, but did make one start after that before the end of the season ... they were the only three starts he missed in the last two years since his recovery from major surgery in July 1985 ... was Chicago's Opening Day pitcher in '87 ... defeated the Kansas City Royals on Opening Day, but then lost his next four decisions (the first of two four-game losing streaks he suffered in 1987), covering six starts from April 11th through May 10th ... however, he rebounded to win six of his next seven decisions, covering 11 starts from May 15th through July 9th (including a three-game winning streak from May 15 through June 13th, his longest winning streak of the year), to give him a 7-5 record in 18 starts with a 3.98 ERA (57 ER, 129.0 IP) at the All-Star break ... however, went 4-7 with a 4.48 ERA (41 ER, 82.1 IP) in 13 starts after the break ... on July 26th he made a bid to pitch the first perfect game in Comiskey Park history, retiring the first 22 Yankees he faced (covering 7.1 hitless innings) before Mike Pagliarulo ended the no-hitter with a sharp single to right field with one out in the eighth inning ... after Mike Easler followed with a double, Dan Pasqua hit a three-run pinch-hit home run to lead the Yankees to an eventual 5-2 win, with Dotson getting the tough loss ... had his second four-game losing streak from August 20th through September 4th, covering four consecutive starts ... in his next outing, on September 9th at Minnesota, he was forced to leave the game after 1.0 IP because of stiffness in his right shoulder ... missed three turns, but came back to make one more start before the end of the year, on September 30th vs California, pitching five innings and gaining credit for the White Sox' 5-2 victory, his 11th and final win of the season ... had a season high eight strikeouts on May 6th at California and had a season high six walks on July 9th at New York ... at Comiskey Park he was 6-8 with a 4.35 ERA, while on the road he was 5-4 with a 3.99 ERA ... was equally tough against lefties and righties ... had an overall batting average against of .249 (201-807), including .248 (93-375) against righties and .250 (108-432) against lefties ... allowed 24 home runs, matching his career high total of 1986 and 1984.

CAREER: 1986—Returned from major surgery in July, 1985 to pitch the entire 1986 season ... only Sox starter not to miss a turn in the rotation ... the surgery corrected a circulatory problem in his upper chest near the right shoulder ... the problem was considered career threatening ... finished with a 10-17 mark and a 5.48 ERA, the most losses and the highest ERA of his eight-plus big league seasons ... managed just three complete games, two in the season's final month when his arm strength improved ... only shutout was his 10th and last win of the season September 5 versus Toronto in Comiskey Park ... limited the Blue Jays to just four hits in that outing ... first complete game was July 4 over the Yankees at Chicago, a 2-1 success ... suffered a five-game losing streak after the Independence Day win and did not earn another victory until winning, 3-1, at Boston August 5 ... also endured a four-game losing streak at the end of the season ... longest winning streak was a three-gamer capped by his July 4 win over the Yankees that temporarily evened his mark at 7-7 ... twice matched his career single-game strikeout best with 10 whiffs at Milwaukee August 10 (6.1 innings) and 10 against Texas August 31 (7.1 innings) ... allowed a team-high 24 homers ... led the club with 197.0 innings ... 1985—opened the season on the 15-day supplementary disabled list ... season came to an end in early June ... underwent surgery in late July ... considered the "ace" of the Sox mound staff entering the season, his absence was a severe blow to the Pale Hose's title hopes ... managed nine starts between April 22 and June 7 and fashioned a 3-4 record ... fired no complete games but lasted a full seven innings on three occasions ... made just a pair of game appearances in spring training due to right arm tenderness later diagnosed as a circulatory problem ... 1984—the White Sox' lone representative on the American League all-star team ... led Sox starters with a 3.59 ERA, 245.2 innings pitched, and 14 complete games ... tied for second on the staff with 14 victories ... 14 complete games ranked third in the A.L. and just three shy of leader Charlie Hough of Texas ... registered two three-hitters and three four-hitters ... established personal single-game strikeout high with 10 against Texas on May 26 en route to a four-hit, 5-1 victory ... best effort came on June 13 in 2-1 win at California when he three-hit the Angels and was deprived of a shutout on an unearned run with two outs in the ninth inning ... also recorded his 500th career strikeout in the game (Rob Wilfong) ... 11-4 and a 2.64 ERA prior to the All-Star Game break ... lost four consecutive games after the break ... 1985 circulatory surgery in right shoulder probably explains Dotson's sub-par second half ... between the 1983 and '84 All-Star Games (he participated in the latter), Dotson posted a composite 25-6 record with a 2.45 ERA in 272.1 innings ... 1983—joined Cy Young Award-winning teammate LaMarr Hoyt in posting a 20-win season and leading the White Sox to their A.L. West Division Championship ... his 22-7 record led the American League in winning percentage (.759) ... second in the league to Hoyt in wins with 22 ... Dotson and Hoyt became only the third ChiSox pitching duo in 63 years to win 20 or more games the same season and the first to turn the trick since Jim Kaat (21-13) and Wilbur Wood (20-19) in 1974 ... also were the first White Sox twosome to win at least 46 games in one year since 1919 when Ed Cicotte (29-7) and "Lefty" Williams (23-11) won 52 ... at age 24, Dotson was the youngest Sox pitcher to record a 20-win season since Reb Russell won 21 in 1913 (Russell was just four months younger than Dotson when he accomplished the feat) ... "Dot" won his last eight decisions and 16 of his last 18 ... from July 15, he lost only twice—once in the regular season and once in the ALCS (both to Baltimore) ... May 18, Dotson pitched the first one-hitter of his career only to lose 1-0 on an eighth-inning home run by Dan Ford just inside the right field foul pole ... the ChiSox were 27-8 in games Dotson started ... joined Hoyt and Floyd Bannister to form the "Big Three" and fashion a 42-5 won-loss record during the second half with a collective ERA of 2.55 in 385 innings ... 12-3 at Comiskey Park ... the A.L. pitcher-of-the-month for September when he was 7-0 with a 1.93 ERA in 51.1 innings ... 1982—after a dismal 3-10 first half, Dotson won eight in a row in the second half to climb to 11-11 on September 8 with a win over California ... named A.L. pitcher-of-the-month for August after going 6-0 with a 1.68 ERA in 48.1 innings ... 1981—the ChiSox' most effective starter in his sophomore big league season ... enjoyed a string of 21 consecutive scoreless innings in May (3-15) with a pair of four-hit shutouts ... finished tied for the A.L. lead with four shutouts, all during the season's first half ... led Sox staff with 24 starts and tied for the lead in complete games (five) ... 1980—the only right-hander in the Sox' "kiddie corps" of young starters, Dotson was second to Britt Burns for staff wins (12), strikeouts (109), and complete games (six) ... tied for second with 32 starts ... his first complete season in the big leagues ... 1979—recorded his first major league shutout in his second major league start September 9, blanking Oakland 7-0 on six hits ... made his major league debut on September 4th vs California ... spent only two full seasons in the minors and never pitched higher than "AA" Knoxville before his call-up ... had 368 strikeouts in 326 minor league innings ... 1978—was 11-10 with Knoxville with 152 strikeouts in 145 IP ... 1977—went 4-5 with Idaho Falls in his first professional season, with 83 strikeouts in 66 innings pitched ... was originally selected in the first round (the seventh player in the nation) by the California Angels in the June, 1977 free agent draft, but was traded by the Angels along with outfielders Bobby Bonds and Thad Bosley to the White Sox on December 5, 1977 in exchange for catcher Brian Downing and pitchers Chris Knapp and Dave Frost.

DOTSON (continued)

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Signed a letter of intent to attend Miami (O.) University after graduating high school, but instead elected to turn professional following the 1977 draft ... stellar prep career at Anderson H.S. in Cincinnati ... met his wife, a Sarasota, Fla. native, during spring training ... served as Chicago's player representative the last three years ... hobbies: hunting, fishing ... favorite spectator sport: football ... favorite team growing up: Cincinnati Reds.

HENDERSON, RICKEY HENLEY (OF) #24

5-10, 195. Born 12/25/58 in Chicago, IL. Age 29, turns 30 on December 25. Resides in Hillsboro, CA. BR. TR. Single.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 8 years, 101 days.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed 5-year contract on December 8, 1984 . . . contract extends through 1989 season.

1987 SEASON: Suffered through an injury plagued season, appearing in just 95 games—fewest since playing in 89, his rookie season of 1979 . . . got off to a great start, going 32-79 (.405 BA) with 25 runs, 6 HRs, 12 RBIs from 4/6 through 5/3, hitting safely in 18 of 21 games . . . hit 6 HRs from 4/14 through 4/26 (29 at-bats, 9 games), and 5 HRs from 4/22 through 4/26 (14 at-bats, 5 games) . . . had only 2-HR game of season, 4/24 @ Cleveland . . . while unable to maintain a .400 clip, he began a season long 11-game hitting streak on 5/6, lasting through 5/18, going 15-45, .333 BA with 16 runs . . . from that point through 6/4, went 8-38, .211 BA, his overall BA falling from .356 to .324 . . . suffered first injury of year 6/4 @ Milwaukee, leaving the game with a pulled right hamstring . . . was then hitting .324, with 10 HRs, 18 RBIs in 45 games and had been successful in 23 of 26 stolen base attempts . . . the hamstring pull was severe enough to land him on the 15-day disabled list by 6/5, where he remained until 6/29, missing 22 games (Yankees went 13-9 in that interval) . . . was again placed on the 15-day disabled list on 8/1 (retroactive to 7/26) with an injured right hamstring . . . he hit .250 (22-88) in 22 games between disabled list stints, his BA falling to .298 . . . was reinstated from D.L. a second time on 9/1, having missed 33 games (Yankees went 16-17) . . . overall in his two D.L. stays, NY went 29-26 in the 55 games he missed . . . following his second return, he went 25-99 (.253 BA, with 6 HRs, 12 BRIs and 15 SB in his final 27 games . . . Rickey played in 50 games total, after suffering his first hamstring injury on 6/4, going 47-188, .250 BA with 35 runs, 7 doubles, 1 triple, 7 HRs, 19 RBIs, and 18 stolen bases—the Yankees, at the point of the first injury, were in first place at 33-20, .623 winning percentage and went 56-53, .514 W/L pct. through the remainder of '87, finishing fourth in the A.L. East . . . appeared as a DH in 24 games, going 25-98, .255 BA with 18 runs, 5 HRs, 9 RBIs . . . was 0-2 as a pinch-hitter . . . went 13-64, .203 BA with runners in scoring position . . . of his 17 HRs, 13 were solo, 4 were 2-run shots.

1987 LEAD-OFF HOME RUN INFORMATION: Rickey hit six lead-off home runs in '87, and now has 34 career lead-off HRs, just one shy of Bobby Bonds' major league record of 35 . . . his first lead-off HR of the year, 4/14 vs. Cleveland, broke the A.L. record of 28 set by Eddie Yost . . . Henderson came to the Yankees from Oakland with 12 lead-off HRs, and yearly with the Yankees has added: 7, 1985; 9, 1986; and 6 in 1987 . . . the 9 lead-off HRs he hit in '86 are an A.L. record.

1987 STOLEN BASE INFORMATION: With 701 SBs is currently leader among active players, followed by Willie Wilson, 529 and Tim Raines, 511 . . . was successful in 41 of 49 stolen base attempts (84%), but had his string of leading the A.L. in stolen bases snapped at seven straight years by Seattle's Harold Reynolds (Henderson had led A.L. from '80 through '86) . . . was 9-9 in SB attempts of third base . . . had three games of 3+ stolen bases, including 4 SBs, May 3 @ Minnesota, tying the Yankee single game record for stolen bases and matching his personal single game high, now having stolen 4 bases in a game on 11 occasions . . . recorded his 700th career stolen base on 9/29 vs. Boston, becoming the youngest player to reach that plateau (Billy Hamilton was youngest to reach 700 prior to Henderson—he was age 30 in 1896, Henderson was 28) . . . his 701 career stolen bases rank 9th on the all-time list, beginning the season in 11th place—Honus Wagner is in 8th place with 720 . . . since 1980 (his first full season) and excluding the 1981 strike season, Rickey has averaged 87 stolen bases per season—should he reach that level in '88, he would move from 9th place on the all-time list to 5th place (see stolen base list below) ... his own A.L. record for consecutive season with 50+ SBs ended at 7 straight years ... ranks fourth on the Yankee all-time stolen base list with 208 (Roy White is third with 233, Willie Randolph second with 242, and Hal Chase first with 248) ... was successful in first 23 stolen base attempts of '87—coupled with final eight SB attempts of '86, had 31 consecutive attempts without being caught, just one shy of A.L. record 32 (previously set by K.C.'s Willie Wilson, 1980 and Seattle's Julio Cruz, 1980-'81) ... string was broken on 5/18 @ Oakland by pitcher Curt Young ... was caught stealing by catchers six times: Boston's John Marzano (twice); Oakland's Terry Steinbach; Seattle's Scott Bradley; Toronto's Charlie Moore; & Milwaukee's B. J. Surhoff ... did not steal a base for 18 straight games, 5/18 through 7/4—the longest such stretch of his career (previous long was 11-games, set 4/8 through 4/22, 1987 ... his high before 1987 was 10 straight games, 9/4 through 9/24, 1982) ... maintained his career SB success rate of 80% ... currently has 174 career caught stealing through '87.

HUDSON, CHARLES LYNN (RHP) #41

6-3, 185. Born 3/16/59 in Ennis, TX. Age 28, turns 29 on March 16. Resides in Voorhees, NJ. BS. TR. Married: Nikki Torian, 11/24/84. Child: Niche (2). College: Prairie View (TX) A&M University.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 4 years, 125 days.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed contract for 1988 season.

1987 SEASON: Began the season strongly, going 6-0 in his first eight games with a 2.02 ERA (13 ER in 58.0 IP, 44 hits, 19 walks, 35 strikeouts) ... his 6-0 start was the best by any Yankee pitcher since Tommy John began 1980 with a 7-0 record ... of those eight games (through May 15th), seven were starts, with his first appearance of the year, on April 8th at Detroit, in a relief role ... in that game, he pitched 4.1 innings in relief of Tommy John, retiring all 13 batters he faced with three strikeouts and received credit for the Yankees' 6-5 win over the Tigers ... that earned him a start for his Yankee Stadium debut, on April 13th vs Cleveland (the home opener), and he threw a complete game, allowing the Indians just three hits (all solo home runs) while recording ten strikeouts to receive credit for the Yankees' 11-3 victory ... the 10 strikeouts was his high as a Yankee and matched his career strikeout high, previously set on October 2, 1985 at Montreal while with the Philadelphia Phillies ... in addition, the three-hitter matched his career low-hit game, previously set July 20, 1983 at Houston while with the Phillies ... in his next outing, on April 19th vs Kansas City at Yankee Stadium (Game 1) he recorded New York's first complete game shutout of the year, blanking the Royals on seven hits, three walks and seven strikeouts, winning 5-0 ... it was the first nine-inning shutout of his career, having thrown a rain-shortened shutout at Atlanta on July 4, 1984 while with the Phillies ... it was the first CG shutout by a Yankee at Yankee Stadium since Ed Whitson shut out Texas 6-0 on July 12, 1985 ... with that CG, Hudson became the first Yankee to throw back-to-back complete games since Phil Niekro did so on September 13th and September 18th, 1985, vs. Toronto and Detroit, respectively

... when Tommy John, Pat Clements, and Dave Righetti combined on a 1-0 shutout win in Game 2 of the doubleheader following Hudson's shutout, it marked the 14th time in Yankee history they won a doubleheader via shutouts in both games, with the previous instance occurring on September 25, 1977, when Ron Guidry and a combined Ed Figueroa—Sparky Lyle shutout stopped the Blue Jays in Toronto ... threw back-to-back complete games again, on May 4th at Chicago (winning 6-1) and on May 10th vs Minnesota, also winning 6-1 ... that game also marked his third complete game in his first three Yankee Stadium starts ... however, in his next seven appearances (five starts) after his 6-0 start, from May 20th through July 19th, he went 1-2 with a 7.50 ERA (20 ER, 24.0 IP) ... included in those games was an 0-2 record and a 9.47 ERA (20 ER, 19.0 IP) in his five starts ... as a result he was optioned to Columbus on June 20th ... at the time of his option he was 7-2 with a 3.62 ERA (15 games, 12 starts, 82.0 IP, 79 hits, 34 runs (33 earned), nine home runs, 30 walks, and 53 strikeouts) ... while with the Clippers he appeared in five games (two starts), going 0-2 with a 6.07 ERA ... he was recalled from Columbus on July 6th, and in his 20 games with the Yankees through the end of the season following his recall (including four starts), he went 4-5 with a 3.59 ERA (72.2 IP, 58 hits, 29 runs (all earned), 10 home runs, 27 walks and 47 strikeouts) ... threw 21.0 scoreless innings in six outings between August 3rd and August 24th, and ran the string to a career high 22.1 innings before the first run was scored on August 28th ... included in that span was 8.0 shutout innings of relief of starter Tommy John (who was forced to leave after 1.0 IP with a stomach disorder) on August 19th at Seattle, gaining credit for the win in a combined 8-0, five-hit shutout with John ... threw his second shutout of the season on September 29th vs Boston, limiting the Red Sox to four hits in a 6-0 Yankee win, becoming the first Yankee pitcher to throw two complete game shutouts at Yankee Stadium since both Dave Righetti and Ron Guidry threw two apiece in 1983 ... in his next start, his last one in 1987, he threw another complete game, on October 4th vs Baltimore, a 4-2 loss, his sixth CG of the year and the third time he had back-to-back CGs ... in his final five outings of the year (two starts, three relief appearances), he was 2-1, allowing 7 ER in 30.0 IP, a 2.10 ERA ... his six complete games and two shutouts led the Yankees and he was second on the club with 100 strikeouts ... finished with a record of 11-7 in 35 games (16 starts) and a 3.61 ERA, and his 11 wins was the third highest total on the team ... his six complete games led the Yankees and was the most by a Yankee pitcher since Ron Guidry (11) and Phil Niekro (7) in 1985 ... set personal single season career bests in wins (11) and complete games (6) ... allowed 19 home runs, 12 of which were solo, including the first five ... one of those homers he allowed was a grand slam HR, by Seattle's Alvin Davis on August 28th at Yankee Stadium ... as a starter he was 6-5 with a 4.12 ERA (45 ER, 98.1 IP), while as a reliever he was 5-2 with a 2.88 ERA (18 ER, 56.1 IP).

CAREER: 1986—Was acquired by the Yankees on December 11, 1986 from the Philadelphia Phillies along with pitcher Jeff Knox in exchange for outfielder Mike Easler and infielder Tom Barrett ... overall he was 7-10 with a 4.94 ERA ... was used as a reliever in his first two games by the Phillies, going 1-0 with a 2.25 ERA then made 23 straight starts ... was sent back to the bullpen on September 2nd for the remainder of the season ... as a starter in those 23 games he was 6-10 with a 5.24 ERA and gave up all 20 of his homers as a starter ... the Phillies scored just 25 runs in his 10 losses, an average of 2.5 runs per game ... in his 10 games as a reliever, he was 1-0 with no saves and a 3.10 ERA ... through June 10th he was 4-3 with a 3.88 ERA over his first 11 games ... however, he had a career-high six-game losing streak from June 15th through July 10th, with a 7.16 ERA ... over his next five starts, from July 20th through August 9th, he was 3-1 with a 3.03 ERA ... made three more starts after that without a decision and then came out of the bullpen in his final eight appearances without a decision or a save ... in his 9-3 victory at Cincinnati on July 20th he had his season high in innings pitched (8.0 IP) and strikeouts (7) ... also went 8.0 IP in a 2-0 loss vs. Montreal on June 15th, but was charged with the loss ... his best outing came on May 31st vs. San Diego, hurling 7.0 shutout innings and giving up 5 hits to gain credit for the Phillies' 1-0 victory ... his longest outing as a reliever was 3.0 IP, on three occasions: April 7th at Cincinnati (Opening Day), September 8th at Chicago, and September 17th vs. St. Louis ... batted .047 in '86 (2/43) with no homers or RBIs ... has a lifetime batting average of .095 (20/210) with no homers and ten RBIs ... is a switch-hitter and lifetime is hitting .171 (6/35) lefthanded with 3 RBIs and .080 (14/175) with 7 RBIs righthanded ... 1985—set season highs in games (38), innings pitched (193.0) and strikeouts (122) ... struck out a career high 10 batters at Montreal on October 2nd ... had second longest consecutive scoreless streak on Phillie staff, 16.2 innings ... started the season in the bullpen, where he was 0-2, 2.60 ERA ... moved into the starting rotation May 14th, replacing Jerry Koosman ... was 8-11, 3.85 ERA in 26 starts ... was the starting pitcher in the Phils' record-setting 26-7 game vs New York on June 11th ... experienced six one-run losses and four two-run defeats ... resumed switch-hitting on July 27th ... had three hits on August 18th at Chicago ... in his 11 losses as a starter the Phillies scored 27 runs, an average of 2.45 per game ... 1984—posted first career shutout (July 5th) vs. Atlanta in a rain-shortened seven-inning game ... suffered a fractured rib on August 9th and missed 22 days of the season ... started switch-hitting in 1984 and dou-

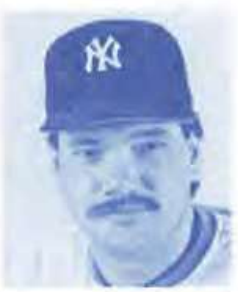
KINNUNEN, MICHAEL J. "Mike" (LHP) #62
Non-Roster Player



6-1, 205. Born 4/1/58 in Seattle, WA. Age 29, turns 30 April 1. Resides in Seattle, WA. BL. TL. College: Washington State University.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 1 year, 42 days.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed contract for 1988 season.

1987 SEASON: Was signed by the Yankees to a Columbus ("AAA") contract on November 12th as a free agent after he was released by the Baltimore Orioles following the conclusion of the 1987 season ... the Yankees are the sixth organization he has been with the last seven seasons (Orioles, Cardinals, Expos, Royals, and Twins are the others) ... spent most of 1987 with Rochester, the "AAA" International League affiliate of the Orioles ... with Rochester in 48 games (all in relief) he posted a record of 6-4 with 16 saves and a 1.75 ERA ... his 16 saves led the International League and he finished third in the league with 34 games finished ... in addition, with 40 points he won the International League Rolaids Relief Man Award ... he did appear in 18 games during the season with the Orioles, all in relief, and did not have a decision or a save in those appearances (including four games finished) along with a 4.95 ERA ... has now worked 48 games in his major league career (all in relief) without gaining a decision ... began the season at Rochester, but after appearing in only three games there, he was recalled to Baltimore on April 16th ... made his first appearance with Baltimore on April 19th (Game 2) vs Cleveland, pitching 0.2 scoreless innings ... in his third appearance with the Orioles, on April 25th at Milwaukee, he had his longest outing of the season, going 3.2 relief innings, giving up one run on three hits and had a season-high four strikeouts ... appeared in eight games with the Orioles, pitching 9.2 IP and giving up 3 earned runs (2.79 ERA) before being optioned back to Rochester on May 13th ... remained in Rochester until he was recalled on July 7th, and pitched in one game with the Orioles, on that date vs Chicago (0.1 IP, 1 ER), before being optioned back to Rochester on July 21st ... remained at Rochester through the conclusion of their season, and then was recalled to Baltimore for the final time on September 7th ... from that point until the conclusion of the season he appeared in nine games, pitching 10.0 innings and allowing eight earned runs (7.20 ERA) ... however, actually had just one bad outing in those games, on September 14th at Toronto, allowing six runs (all earned) on six hits (including two home runs) in just 1.2 IP ... if that game is subtracted from his season statistics, his overall ERA for the season with the Orioles drops from 4.95 (11 ER, 20.0 IP) in 18 games to 2.45 (5 ER, 18.1 IP) in 17 games ... has enjoyed his best success in his career against the Yankees, allowing only five hits and two runs (one earned) in 9.2 innings over eight games.

CAREER: 1986—Spent most of the season with Rochester, where he was 1-3 with ten saves and held opponents to a .216 (24-190) batting average against ... did not allow a home run in 87.2 IP ... was second on the staff in appearances (47), saves (10), and games finished (24) ... was scored on in only five of his last 24 appearances ... was recalled to Baltimore on September 14th and worked in his first game for the Orioles the next day at Yankee Stadium, his first big league appearance since October 4, 1980 with the Minnesota Twins ... had no decisions in nine appearances (all in relief) with the Orioles and posted a 6.43 ERA ... was signed by the Orioles as a seven year free agent on March 23, 1986 ... 1985—

pitched with Omaha, the Royals' "AAA" affiliate in the American Association and was second on the club in appearances (53), saves (6), and games finished (25)... was acquired by the Royals from the Expos with outfielder Ken Baker in exchange for shortstop U.L. Washington on January 7, 1985 ... 1984—at Indianapolis and Jacksonville (Expo farm teams) he was a combined 9-3 with four saves ... 1983—in 38 games at Memphis (Expos) he tied for the club lead in saves (6) and was second on the staff in ERA (2.57)... he was signed by the Expos organization as a free agent on April 27, 1983 after he was released by the Cardinal organization on April 4th ... 1982—appeared in only 18 games at Arkansas (a Cardinal affiliate) but earned five saves and four wins and had the second lowest ERA on a club that led the Texas League in ERA ... 1981—was acquired by the Cardinals from the Twins in exchange for pitcher Jeff Little on October 23, 1981 ... in his final season in the Twins organization, he was 4-4 with Toledo with four saves and a 5.50 era ... 1980—began the season in Toledo and was 2-2 with three saves and a 2.57 ERA in 15 relief appearance when he was recalled by the Twins in June and spent the rest of the season with the big league club ... made his major league debut in Detroit on June 12th and gave up a home run to Champ Summers ... was used exclusively in relief, with his longest outing being 3.0 innings (twice) ... was 0-0 with no saves and a 5.04 ERA in 21 outings for the Twins ... 1979—was 6-6 with a 4.12 ERA in 17 games (16 starts) and a 4.12 ERA with Orlando in his first season of professional ball ... originally was selected by the Twins in the 10th round of the June, 1979 free agent draft after his junior year at Washington State University.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Attended Lincoln High School in Seattle and pitched, played quarterback, and was president of his senior class ... attended Washington State University for three years ... compiled a 20-9 record at WSU and helped the Cougars to three straight PAC-8 Northern Division championships ... in 1979 as a junior he was 9-3 and the co-winner of the team's "Most Valuable Pitcher" Award ... played for the United States team which finished second in the world amateur tournament in Italy in 1978 ... was 3-0 in tourney play with a 0.45 ERA ... hobbies: fishing ... nicknamed "Kino".

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 4 years, 163 days.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed 3-year contract on January 11, 1988 . . . contract extends through 1990 season.

1987 SEASON: Another superb year—his fourth straight . . . began season slowly, hitting .175 on 4/15, after 9 games . . . his April BA of .265 was his career low for that month (interestingly, Mattingly had exactly 22 hits in each April, 1984-'87 . . . had first career three-strikeout game, 4/13 vs. Cleveland . . . BA was as low as .239 (27-113) on 5/9, after 29 games . . . went 37-93, .398 from 5/10 through 6/4, including a 15-game hitting streak (5/19-6/4) to raise season stats to 64-206, .311 BA on 6/4, with 6 HRs, 36 RBIs in 53 games . . . during his pre-game routine on 6/4 @ Milwaukee he injured his back fielding ground balls . . . injured, he tried to play, going 2-3 with an RBI, before pain became too severe to continue . . . his innings missed on 6/4 were the first since 8/7/86 (missed only 6 innings all of '86), and that game was the last of a string of 335 consecutive games played (final 120 of '85; 162 in '86; & first 53 of '87), last sitting out 5/27/85 . . . tests later taken at NYU Medical Center revealed a disc problem in his back, forcing him to be placed on the 15-day disabled list on 6/9 . . . activated from disabled list on 6/24 . . . the Yankees were 11-7 during Mattingly's absence (6/5-23, inclusive) . . . upon his return, he hit in 18 of next 22 games (6/24 through 7/19), going 39-95, .411 BA with 25 runs, 8 doubles, 12 HRs & 33 RBIs, raising overall BA to .342—his '87 high . . . went 4-6, 6/26 vs. Boston . . . missed games of 7/21-22 @ Minnesota with slightly sprained right wrist suffered on 7/18 after hitting record tying HR . . . coming back from that injury, he was used as a pinch-hitter on 7/24 @ Chicago, his first pinch-hitting appearance since 4/6/84 . . . upon completion of the eight consecutive game home run streak 7/18, Mattingly went without a HR from 7/19 through 8/7 (16 games), and hit just 1 HR over 21 games, 7/19 through 8/12 . . . had 11 EBH including 5 HRs with 11 RBIs in 12 games from 8/8 through 8/21, and 7 EBH including 4 HRs with 9 RBIs in 7 games from 8/14 through 8/21 . . . came into game of 7/20 with .342 BA (season high), and finished game of 9/1 with .325 BA (lowest point since 7/7 through season's end)—between those two dates he went 42-145, .290 BA . . . had second and final 4-hit game, 9/2 vs. Oakland, going 4-5 . . . finished the season with an 11-game hitting streak, 8/30 through 9/11; hit in 17 of 18, 8/30 through 9/18; 26 of 28, 8/30 through 9/29; and in 28 of last 32 games, 8/30 through 10/4, going 45-136, .331 BA with 7 HRs, 31 RBIs . . . on 9/22 @ Milw. (2nd gm) made first appearance as DH since 7/6/86 @ Chicago . . . suffering from flu-like symptoms, he was pinch-hit for by Orestes Destrade, 10/1 vs. Boston, the first time he had been pinch-hit for since Vic Mata batted for him, 8/3/84 vs. Clev. (1st gm) . . . had a pair of 2-HR games: 7/8 vs. Minn. & 7/16 @ Texas . . . hit .311 with runners in scoring position . . . averaged 1 K per 15.0 at bats . . . his .331 career batting average remains third on the all-time Yankee list for players with 500 games, trailing only Babe Ruth (.349) and Lou Gehrig (.340).

RECORDS SET OR TIED: Blasted six grand slams, setting a new M.L. record (#6 came 9/29 at Yankee Stadium off Boston's Bruce Hurst), breaking the previous record of five set by Cub Ernie Banks, 1955 & Oriole Jim Gentile, 1961 . . . the Yankee record for grand slams in a season was four set by Lou Gehrig in 1934 & Tommy Henrich, 1948 . . . from 7/8 to 7/18 hit at least one HR in eight straight games, tying the major league record previously set by Pirate Dale Long in 1956 . . . Mattingly smashed the A.L. record of homering in six straight games during the same streak, previously done six times (last by Reggie Jackson with Baltimore in 1976; also done by Yankees Lou Gehrig, 1931 & Roger Maris, 1961 . . . over the eight game HR streak, Mattingly hit .459, 17-37, with 10 HRs, 21 RBIs . . . had 7 RBIs on 7/16 @ Texas, his single game career high, and most by a Yankee in '87 . . . had at least one extra-base hit in ten consecutive games, 7/7 through 7/19, breaking A.L. record of nine, previously set in 1921 by Babe Ruth . . . see fielding section for additional records.

GENERAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Became first player in seven-year history of the Elias Sports Bureau's report for the MLBPA to compile a perfect 1.000 score, ranking first in each category used to measure production of first basemen: plate appearances, batting average, on-base percentage, home runs & runs batted in . . . selected to fourth consecutive A.L. All-Star team; and was selected to AP, UPI, Sporting News All-Star and Silver Slugger teams, each for the third straight year . . . captured third straight Rawlings Gold Glove Award for A.L. first basemen . . . had fourth straight 100+ RBI season . . . first Yankee since Mickey Mantle (1955-62) & Roger Maris (1960-62) to hit 30+ HRs in three straight seasons . . . became first ever Yankee to lead club in batting average, hits, doubles & RBIs four consecutive seasons . . . breaking down the previous into individual categories, the last Yankees to lead the club each at least four straight seasons were: batting average—Mickey Mantle, '55-'58; hits—Bobby Murcer, '71-'74; doubles—none till Mattingly; RBI—Reggie Jackson, '77-'80 . . . prior to Mattingly, the last Yankee to lead the team with 100+ RBIs was DiMaggio, '37-'42 . . . ranked in A.L.: 38 doubles, T3rd; .327 BA & 115 RBIs, 5th; .559 SLG.%, 7th; & 186 hits, 8th . . . was twice named A.L. Player of the Week—for weeks ending 7/12 & 7/19 . . . also named A.L. Player of the Month for July, going 37-99, .374 BA with 21 runs, 10 HRs & 24 RBIs for the month . . . over the last five years among all major leaguers: 921 hits, tied fourth with Cal Ripken (behind Wade Boggs, 1060; Tony Gwynn, 933; and Tim Raines, 928); 515 RBIs, sixth (trailing Mike Schmidt, 540; Dave Winfield, 531; Jim Rice, 523; and Dale Murphy and Eddie Murray, 520); and .331 BA, third (behind Boggs, .354 and Gwynn, .338).

FIELDING INFORMATION: Mattingly's .996 fielding pct. (5 errors, 1335 total chances) was best in the A.L. for the fourth straight year (1,000 total chances), tying the A.L. first basemen's record for most consecutive years leading league in fielding (100 or more games played) previously set by Charles Gandil for the Indians and White Sox from 1916 to 1919 (the major league record is 5 consecutive years, set by the Red's Ted Kluszewski from 1951 to 1955) . . . tied with Kent Hrbek for fewest errors (5) by a first baseman with 1,000+ total chances . . . on 7/20 tied M.L. record of 22 putouts by a first baseman in a nine-inning game, also held by Tommy Jones (St. Louis Browns, 5/11/06), Hal Chase (N.Y. Highlanders, 9/21/06 [1st gm]), and Ernie Banks (Chicago Cubs, 5/9/63).

BASES LOADED: With the bases loaded was 9-19, .474 BA in 21 plate appearances, and in addition to his six grand slams had two singles, a double, a pair of sac flies & 33 RBIs . . . prior to advent of '87, was just 12-47, .255 BA, with just one extra-base hit in career bases loaded situations . . . in fact, prior to his first '87 slam, his career numbers with bases loaded fell to 13-52, .250 BA, in 70 plate appearances with just two EBH (having gone 1-5 with a double, sac fly & 4 RBIs this season), and beginning with the first grand slam he went 8-14, .571 BA with 6 slams and 29 RBIs.

CAREER: 1986—The 1985 American League MVP and runner-up in the '86 MVP voting behind Roger Clemens had another remarkable season, supporting a mid-season New York Times poll of 417 major league players that named Mattingly the best player in the game . . . he led the majors with 238 hits, a .573 slugging pct.; 388 total bases (led M.L. 2nd consecutive year); 86 extra-base hits for a second consecutive year (also led M.L. 2nd consecutive year); and 53 doubles (led M.L. for 3rd consecutive year—first player to lead A.L. or M.L. three straight years since Tris Speaker, 1920-23) . . . his 238 hits broke the former Yankee record of 231 set in 1927 by Earle Combs . . . his 232nd hit, which actually broke Combs' record, came in the 7th inning, 10/2 @ Fenway off Sammy Stewart . . . his 388 total bases were most by a Yankee since Joe DiMaggio posted 418 TB in 1937; most in A.L. since Jim Rice's 406 in 1978; equalled 4th highest total in M.L. since 1939; became 10th player to lead the majors in TB 2 consecutive years—first player since Mike Schmidt, 1980-81, only Yankee besides Babe Ruth, 1923-24 . . . his 53 doubles also broke the former Yankee mark of 52 set in 1927 by Lou Gehrig (53rd double came in 4th inning of NY's final game. 10/5 @ Fenway Park off Red Sox hurler Jeff Sellers) . . . final BA of .352 was second in majors . . . 117 runs was third in majors; third in A.L. . . . 15 GWRBI tied third in majors; tied first in A.L. . . . 113 RBIs, fifth in majors; third in A.L. . . . .394 OB%, 7th in majors; 5th in A.L. . . . 31 HRs, tied seventh in majors; tied sixth in A.L. . . . went into final series of season chasing Boston's Wade Boggs .357 to .350 in A.L. batting race . . . while Boggs sat out the 4-game set with a sore right hamstring, Don went 8/19, .421 BA, 5 runs, 2 doubles, 2 HRs & 4 RBIs, raising BA to .352 mark . . . given the same number of at-bats for Mattingly (19) in that series, he would have needed 12 hits to overtake Boggs (averages would have been: Mattingly, .3574; Boggs, .3568) . . . first Yankee to hit .350 or better since Mickey Mantle hit .365 in 1957 . . . first Yankee lefthanded hitter to hit .350 or better since Lou Gehrig hit .351 in 1937, and Don's .352 BA was the highest by a Yankee lefthanded hitter since Gehrig hit .354 and Bill Dickey hit .362 in 1936 . . . became only the 8th Yankee to ever hit at least .352: Babe Ruth (8 times); Lou Gehrig (5); Joe DiMaggio (3); Mickey Mantle (2); Earle Combs; Tony Lazzeri; and Bill Dickey—all but Lazzeri are Hall of Famers . . . became the 11th player in M.L. history, and the first in 27 years (Hank Aaron, 1959), to finish with at least 200 hits, a .350 BA, 30 HRs, & 100 RBIs—other players were: Lou Gehrig (five times), Babe Ruth and Rogers Hornsby (three each), Chuck Klein, Jimmie Fox, and Stan Musial (twice each), Lefty O'Doul, Hack Wilson, and Joe Medwick . . . he became the first A.L. player to record 230 hits, 100 RBIs and 30 HRs (accomplished 6 times by N.L. players, last by Stan Musial in 1948) . . . Mattingly became the first player to lead the Yankees in average, hits, doubles & RBIs three straight years since Lou Gehrig 1932-34 . . . his 53 doubles were most in M.L. since Hal McRae had 54 for K.C. in 1977—prior to that, the most since George Kell had 56 for Detroit in 1950 . . . first Yankee to record 200+ hits three consecutive years since Gehrig, 1930-32 . . . became the fourth Yankee to play in 162 games in a single season, joining Bobby Richardson (1962); Roy White ('70); and Chris Chambliss ('78) . . . through the end of '86 played in 282 consecutive games (final 120 of '85; 162 in '86) . . . missed just 6 innings of play in '86: 4 innnings, 6/28 vs. Toronto (due to bruised left index finger); and 2 innings 8/7 vs. Milwaukee . . . .996 fielding pct. led A.L. firstbasemen for third consecutive year . . . only Yankee to ever lead league in fielding pct. three straight years at any position . . . led A.L. firstbasemen with 160 games and 1483 total chances . . . won second consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove Award . . . hit .305 (50/164) with runners in scoring position . . . four-hit games: 5/6 @ Chicago; 5/17 @ Seattle; 6/19 @ Toronto; 6/20 @ Toronto . . . had 2 three-double games: 4/21 @ Kansas City and 7/11 @ Minnesota . . . had 2 two-home run games: 5/28 @ Seattle and 6/9 @ Detroit . . . his 79 multi-hit games led the club . . . averaged just 1 strikeout for every 19.3 at bats . . . slowed in spring training by a bone bruise of the left thumb, playing only 16 of 28 exhibition games, hitting .300 with 0 homeruns, 6 RBIs . . . recorded 500th career hit with first hit of season, Opening Day, 4/8 vs Kansas City . . . notched third career 5-RBI game, 4/21 at KC . . . did not hit his first homerun until 81st at-bat, 4/30 vs. Minnesota off Bert Blyleven . . . tied M.L. record with 3 sacrifice flies, 5/3 vs. Texas . . . hit in 14 straight games, 5/4–5/18, going 28/61, .459 BA, 11 runs, 11 doubles, 3 HRs, 8 RBIs, raising BA from .261 to .340 . . . a sac fly in the 9th inning 6/24 at Boston broke a streak of 57 at-bats without an RBI that began with his last at-bat 6/12 (went 11 games between recording RBI 52 and 53) . . . hit in 13 of 14 games, 6/19–7/3, going 30/60, .500 BA, 14 runs, 7 doubles, 1 HR, 5 RBIs, raising BA from .310 to .344 . . . after 6/24 his BA never dipped below .334 . . . made his first start and appearance as a designated hitter 7/6 at Chicago, breaking a string of 201 consecutive starts at firstbase . . . with Mike Pagliarulo bothered by a sore hamstring, Mattingly made three appearances at thirdbase, the first coming 8/29 at Seattle . . . became the first lefthanded thirdbaseman since Mike Squires played 13 games at third for the White Sox in 1984, and the first such Yankee thirdbaseman since Hal Chase played 1 game in 1908 . . . among the 3 appearances at third were 2 starts: second game of doubleheader, 8/30 and 8/31, both at Seattle . . . had career high 24-game hitting streak extending from 8/30 (2nd gm) through 9/26 . . .

it was the longest streak of Don's career, and the seventh longest hitting streak in Yankee history as well as being the longest in the A.L. in 1986 . . . hit safely in 44 of last 49 games, going 77/199, .387 BA, 40 runs, 16 doubles, 1 triple, 11 HRs, 34 RBIs . . . hit safely in 81 of 97 games played since 6/18 (was hitting .310 on that date), going 153/403, hitting .380 . . . 40 of 113 runs driven in by Mattingly scored by Rickey Henderson . . . season final .352 BA was the highest point reached throughout year . . . 0/12 was longest 0/for, beginning 6/15, lasting until 8th inning at-bat, 6/17 . . . went 13 games with 0 HRs, 6/13–6/25, and 9 games without homering, 6/28–7/16 . . . had just 2 HRs in the 30 games from 6/13 to 7/6 . . . had just 1 HR in 17 games from 7/26 to 8/11, including another 9-game homerless skein, 8/2–8/11 . . . another 13-game homerun drought came 8/31–9/14 . . . his .332 career BA ranked third on the All-Time Yankee list of players with 500 games, trailing only Babe Ruth (.349) and Lou Gehrig (.340) . . . his 677 at-bats is the fourth highest single season total in Yankee history, trailing only Horace Clarke's total of 686 in 1970, and Bobby Richardson's totals of 679 in 1964, and Yankee record of 692 in '62 . . . 1985—phenomenal season, displaying prowess with bat and glove . . . led majors with 145 RBIs, 48 doubles, 15 sacrifice flies . . . led A.L. with 370 total bases, 21 GWRBI, 86 extra-base hits . . . second in A.L. with 211 hits, .567 slugging pct., 66 multiple-hit games . . . third in A.L. with .324 BA . . . fourth in A.L. with 35 HRs . . . tied sixth in A.L. with 107 runs . . . led A.L. first-basemen with .995 fielding pct. . . . 145 RBIs were the most by a Yankee since Joe DiMaggio had 155 in 1948 . . . first Yankee to lead A.L. in RBIs since Roger Maris in 1961 . . . reached 100 RBI plateau August 20–earliest by Yankee since Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle recorded #100 on August 4th & 6th, respectively, 1961 . . . 211 hits were then the most by a Yankee since Red Rolfe had 213 in 1939, currently the 7th highest total in Yankee history (includes 238 hits in '86) . . . first Yankee to collect 200+ hits in consecutive seasons since DiMaggio, '36-37 . . . first A.L. player to lead majors in doubles, consecutive seasons, since Tris Speaker, '20-23 . . . first player to lead A.L. in doubles, consecutive seasons, since Tony Oliva, '69-70 . . . 48 doubles is the third highest single season total in Yankee history . . . 652 at-bats is eighth greatest season total in Yankee history . . . first Yankee to have 600+ at-bats, consecutive seasons, since Chris Chambliss, '76-78 . . . 159 games led team, also second highest total played by a Yankee at firstbase (played 160 games in '86) . . . suffered minor tear of medial meniscus cartilage of right knee in February, working with weights at Evansville, IN home . . . underwent arthroscopic surgery to repair damage 2/22 . . . rehabilitation caused him to miss first 18 spring training games . . . upon return, homered in first spring at-bat, 3/26 . . . did not hit first HR until 5/5 off KC's Bud Black . . . PAGLIARULO, MICHAEL TIMOTHY "Mike" "Pags" (3B) #13

6-2, 195. Born 3/15/60 in Medford, MA. Age 28, turned 28 March 15. BL. TR. Married: Karen D'Ettore, 10/16/83. Child: Michael Anthony, 2/9/87. College: University of Miami.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 3 years, 86 days.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed contract for 1988 season.

1987 SEASON: Was one of the top power hitters in the American League . . . hit 32 home runs, which tied him for ninth place in the American League in that category and led the Yankees . . . ranked third on the club with 87 runs batted in . . . his home run and RBI totals both are career highs . . . his 32 home runs matched Graig Nettles for the second highest single season total hit by a Yankee third baseman (Nettles hit 32 home runs in 1976 to lead the A.L. in that category), surpassed only by Nettles' club record total of 37 home runs by a third baseman, set in 1977 . . . coupled with his 28 home runs last year, Pagliarulo and Nettles have the top four single season home run totals by Yankee third basemen . . . Pagliarulo averaged one home run every 16.3 at-bats in 1987, the best mark among Yankee regulars and the second best ratio on the team, behind only Ron Kittle's ratio of one homer per 13.25 ABs . . . Pagliarulo also led the team with 12 game-winning RBIs, which also set a new career high in that category . . . he batted .234 (122-522) in 150 games with 26 doubles, three triples, and 76 runs . . . in addition to career highs in homers, RBIs, and GWRBIs, he also established new career highs in games (150), at-bats (522), runs (76), hits (122), doubles (26), and slugging percentage (.479) . . . in addition to leading the Yankees in homers and game-winning RBIs and ranking third in RBIs, he was second on the club in games played and doubles, third in total bases (250) and slugging percentage (among Yankees with 200 or more at-bats), and fifth in hits and runs scored . . . led the Yankees with 111 strikeouts . . . he hit four home runs off lefthanded pitchers: Joe Sambito (June 19th at Boston), Joel McKeon (July 10th vs Chicago), Floyd Bannister (July 24th at Chicago), and Bill Wilkinson (August 18th at Seattle) . . . his first home run of the season, off Jack Morris of the Tigers in Yankee Stadium on April 20th, broke a string of 143 at-bats since his previous home run (his last 99 at-bats of 1986 and his first 44 at-bats of 1987) . . . on May 8th vs Minnesota he hit his second career grand slam (off Jeff Reardon in the ninth inning) and coupled with his earlier solo HR off Mark Portugal he had his fourth career two-home run game . . . his 5 RBIs that contest established a personal career single game high . . . hit one other grand slam in '87, on September 4th vs California off Kirk McCaskill in the first inning (his 30th home run of the season) and now has three career grand slams . . . his four RBIs that game was one of three four-RBI games he had last year in addition to his one five-RBI game, with the other two 4-RBI games coming on June 3rd vs California and on

June 15th vs Baltimore . . . had four two-home runs games, coming, in addition to the May 8th game vs Minnesota, on May 12th vs Chicago (solo homers off Bill Long and Bob James), August 5th at Cleveland (solo home runs off Phil Niekro), and August 20th at Seattle (solo homers off Mike Campbell) and now has seven career two-home run games . . . hit home runs in back-to-back games five times: June 2-3 vs California, June 19-20 at Boston, July 7-8 vs Minnesota, August 20 (at Seattle—2 home runs) and August 21 (at Oakland), and September 4-5 vs California . . . of his 32 home runs, 17 were solo HRs, 12 were 2-run homers and two were grand slams . . . had 36 multi-hit games in 1987, including two three-hit games, on June 7th at Milwaukee and on September 7th at Boston . . . had two doubles in that September 7th game, one of two games when he had two doubles (the other was on August 19th at Seattle) . . . hit two of his three triples last year on May 20th at Oakland . . . started the season slowly, batting just .194 (30-155) with six homers and 20 RBIs on May 30th after 44 games . . . However, over his next 63 games, through August 11th, he batted .285 (61-214) with 18 home runs and 41 RBIs to raise his overall average to .247 (91-369), the highest point it would be all year following his eighth game of the season . . . in ten games from July 7-20, he batted .353 (12-34) with five home runs, nine RBIs, and 13 runs scored, with nine of the 12 hits going for extra bases (five homers and four doubles) . . . included in that stretch was a seven game hitting streak from July 10-20, Pagliarulo's longest hitting streak of the season (and matching his career hitting streak best), when he went 9-23 (.391) with three doubles, three home runs, six RBIs, and 10 runs scored . . . in the final game of that streak, on July 20 at Minnesota, he scored three runs, his 1987 single game high . . . in six games from August 15-21, seven of his nine hits were for extra bases (five home runs and two doubles) and he had nine RBIs in that span . . . his last home run came on September 8th at Boston off Al Nipper . . . suffering from a sore right elbow, he did not hit a home run in his final 20+ games of 1987 (covering 68 at-bats), his longest homerless stretch of the season . . . in his final 20 games, starting on September 9th, he hit just .185 (12-65) with just three extra base hits (all doubles) and seven RBIs to lower his batting average from .241 to his final .234 mark . . . against righthanders in 1987 Pagliarulo batted .236 (87-369) with 28 home runs and 67 RBIs . . . against lefties he hit .230 (35-152) with four home runs and 20 RBIs . . . batted .000 (0-8) as a pinch-hitter with two strikeouts . . . batted .233 (28-120) with runners in scoring position . . . his one stolen base of the season came on June 3rd vs California . . . played 147 games at third base, the most by a Yankee since Nettles played 159 games at third in 1978 . . . Pagliarulo had a fielding percentage of .959, committing only 17 errors in 410 total chances . . . he ranked fifth in fielding in the A.L. among third basemen playing 100 or more games . . . put together a stretch of 26 errorless games from July 3rd through August 5th . . . made his first career appearance at first base, on June 14th vs Milwaukee . . . suffered from a sore right elbow the last month of the season which hampered his play, and he underwent arthroscopic surgery at NYU Medical Center, performed by Dr. John Bonamo, on October 8th to remove loose bodies in his right elbow.

CAREER: 1986—Blossomed into one of the top power hitters on the Yankees . . . hit 28 home runs which tied him for 15th place in the American League in that category and finished tied with Rickey Henderson for second place on the Yankees . . . his HR total was the fourth highest ever by a Yankee third baseman, surpassed only by Graig Nettles' 37 home runs in 1977, his 32 homers in 1976, and Pags' 32 homers in 1987 . . . began the season slowly, hitting just .215 (13/61) at the end of April with three home runs and 7 RBIs . . . his single off Juan Agosto on May 12th at Minneapolis broke an 0-17 streak against lefthanded pitchers since the start of the season . . . hit two home runs for the second time in his career on May 23rd vs California, solo HRs off Don Sutton and Ken Forsch . . . matched his former single game career high of 4 RBIs on May 25th vs California . . . hit a home run off Milt Wilcox on May 29th at Seattle . . . the following night, May 30th at Oakland, he was hit in the face by a Curt Young pitch in the 7th inning . . . it was feared at first that he might have suffered some broken bones and facial damage that might cause him to miss an extensive amount of games, but the injury proved to be a hairline fracture of his nose, coupled with lacerations on the bridge of his nose and a bruised right forearm . . . missed just one game (May 31th at Oakland) with that injury and then returned to the lineup on June 1st at Oakland and proceeded to homer in three successive games (June 1st off the A's Tom Dozier, June 2nd at California, off the Angels' T.R. Bryden, and June 3rd off California's Don Sutton), becoming the only Yankee to hit home runs in three straight contests in 1986 . . . hit home runs in back-to-back games against the Orioles on June 7th (a 3-run HR off Mike Boddicker) and June 8th (a two-run HR off Ken Dixon) . . . in the seven games from June 1st through June 8th following his injury on May 29th in Oakland, he hit .333 (8/24), with five of those eight hits home runs, and added 9 RBIs . . . in 14 games from May 23rd through June 8th he batted .367 (18/49) with 9 home runs and 19 RBIs to raise his average from .185 to .241 . . . went the next 22 games, from June 9th through July 3rd, covering 89 at-bats, with just two home runs . . . had a season high six-game hitting streak from June 6-June 11 . . . matched his single game career high with four hits, all singles, on June 27th vs Toronto . . . hit solo home runs on consecutive days at Chicago on July 4th (off Richard Dotson) and July 5th (off Joe Cowley) . . . on July 11th at Minnesota he homered in the first of two consecutive games, a 3-run HR off Neal Heaton, his first home run of 1986 off a left-handed pitcher . . . following that the next game, on July 12th, by hitting a solo HR off Mike Smithson . . . on July 18th vs Chicago, he matched his former single game career high with 4 RBIs, including a 3-run homer off Floyd Bannister, his second HR off a lefty pitcher in '86 . . . in the 14 games from July 4th through July 21st he hit safely in 11, batting .396 (19/48) with 7 HRs and 19 RBIs while raising his average from .253 to .275 . . . was hitting .262 with 21 HRs and 49 RBIs at the All-Star break . . . went ten games, from July 22nd through August 1st, covering 36 at-bats, without a home run or an RBI, then hit two solo homers off Ken Schrom on August 2nd at Cleveland . . . hit his last HR of the season on August 24th vs Oakland off Dave Stewart, going his final 99 at-bats after that without a home run . . . suffered a pulled left hamstring running out a triple in that game . . . at the time of his injury, he was hitting .257 (105/408) with 28 HRs and 68 RBIs in 118 games . . . the injury limited him to four pinch-hit appearances (1/4) over the Yankees' next 10 games, from August 25th through Sept. 3rd . . . in the 31 games he played the remainder of the season following that injury, he hit .156 (15/96) with no homers, 3 RBIs, and 31 strikeouts . . . finished the season with a .238 batting average . . . finished fifth on the Yankees in doubles and RBIs, 4th in GWRBIs, first in strikeouts, and 4th in slugging percentage (.464) among Yankees with 200 or more at-bats . . . averaged one home run per 18.0 times at bat, trailing only Dan Pasqua and Ron Kittle in that category . . . recorded his first career stolen base on June 1st at Oakland . . . was 1/9 (.111) as a pinch-hitter with 1 RBI . . . hit .258 (88/341) vs righties with 26 HRs and 60 RBIs . . . batted .196 (32/163) vs lefties with 2 HRs and 11 RBIs . . . made two appearances at shortstop—July 2nd vs Detroit and August 17th at Kansas City . . . played 143 games at third base . . . his fielding percentage of .953 ranked 7th among third basemen playing 100 or more games . . . had 27 multiple hit games, including one four-hit game and six three-hit games . . . hit two home runs in the same game twice and homered in consecutive games five times, including one streak of three straight games . . . 1985—became NY's regular third baseman in his first full major league season . . . averaged 1 HR every 20 ABs . . . went 4/6 on Sept. 9th at Milwaukee, his first career 4-hit game . . . had first career 2 HR game July 27th at Texas, hitting a pair of 2-run homers good for 4 RBIs . . . matched career-long hitting streak of seven games from July 14-24 . . . hitting only .165 through June 9th (15/91) with 2 HR and 16 RBIs, went .263 (76/289) with 17 HRs, 46 RBIs through remainder of season . . . sent to bat righthanded vs Mickey Mahler Sept. 18th at Detroit, striking out with runners at second and third, two out, score tied at 2-2 . . . played 134 games at third base and had the third fewest errors for third basemen with at least 100 games . . . hit .278 in 22 pinch-hitting appearances . . . hit .254 in 126 games vs righthanders, .151 in just 12 games vs lefties . . . 62 RBIs ranked 6th on the club . . . 1984—made major league debut on July 7th when called up from Columbus to replace injured Toby Harrah . . . first big league HR on July 13 (2nd game) off KC's Brett Saberhagen . . . first grand-slam September 18 off Baltimore's Dennis Martinez . . . 1983—played full season at AA Nashville . . . led Southern League third basemen in fielding with .954 percentage, 133 games, 433 total chances (98 putouts and 315 assists) . . . 1982—named utility infielder on South Atlantic League All-Star team . . . 1981—signed by Yankee scout Fred Ferreira . . . batted .216 in 72 games at Oneonta with 2 HRs in 245 at bats.

RANDOLPH, WILLIE LARRY (2B) #30

5-11, 170. Born 7/6/54 in Holly Hill, SC. Age 33, turns 34 July 6th. Resides in Upper Saddle River, NJ. BR. TR. Married: Gretchen Foster 2/1/75. Children: Taniesha (12), Chantre (9), Andre (7) and Ciara (3).

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 12 years and 64 days.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed 2-year contract on January 8, 1987 ... contract runs through 1988 season.

1987 SEASON: Had perhaps his best major league season, even with a month-long mid-season knee injury ... had 4 hits and 5 RBIs, April 13 vs. Cleveland, tying career highs previously set in each category ... had 2 HRs in 8 at-bats, May 31 to June 2 ... hit safely in 18 of 19 games, May 19 through June 8, going 25-73, .342 BA with 16 runs and 18 RBIs, raising overall BA from .299 to .314 ... appeared as a designated hitter on June 19th @ Boston (third career game at DH) and had 4-hits, again matching his career high in that category ... was hitting .309 in 84 games through the All-Star break, and was the A.L.'s starting second baseman in the July 14th mid-summer classic ... however, on July 15th he was placed on the 21-day disabled list with torn cartilage in his left knee, an injury that occurred over a gradual period of time ... underwent arthroscopic surgery to repair damage on July 17th ... was activated from the disabled list on August 14th, missing 26 games (Yankees went 11-15 during that period) ... although activated from the D.L. on August 14th, recovery of the knee progressed slowly, and he appeared in just three games between that date and August 29th ... beginning with August 29th, Randolph appeared in 33 of NY's last 35 games ... his post D.L. numbers were: 39-132, .295 BA with 26 runs, 3 HRs & 20 RBIs ... walked at least once in 13 straight games, September 16 to 29th ... his RBI on September 27 @ Baltimore was career number 62, surpassing his previous career high of 61 set in '79 ... had two 11-game hitting streaks (May 29 through June 8 and September 4 through 15th)—his longest hitting streaks since opening the '86 season hitting in 15 straight ... beginning on June 3rd, and with the exception of September 2-4, his average was .300 or above ... has stolen at least 10 bases in each of his 12 full major league seasons ... hit .316 (36-114) with runners in scoring position ... improved fielding pct. from .972 in '86 to .981 in '87 (12 errors, 636 total chances) ... led all Yankee infielders with 338 assists.

GENERAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Set career highs with a .305 BA, and 67 RBIs ... in fact, this was the first season he hit .300 or better ... also tied career season high with 7 HRs ... .411 on-base pct. was 4th in A.L., and 82 walks ranked 9th ... scored 96 runs in 120 games, his third best career total, and best since scoring 99 runs in '80 ... in his previous 10 full seasons with the Yankees (excluding 1981 strike season), he averaged 137.1 games played—had he reached that number of games played in '87, his runs scored total would factor out to 110 and would have been a new career high ... on Yankee all-time lists, Randolph moved from: 14th to 11th with 1,584 games; 14th to 10th with 5,899* at-bats; 13th to 8th with 984 runs; 15th to 10th with 1,638 hits; 17th to T15th (Phil Rizzuto) with 239 doubles; 20th to 19th with 57 triples ... * should Randolph record 500 at-bats in '88, the only Yankees to have more ABs than he would be: Mantle (8,102); Gehrig (8,001); Berra (7,546); Ruth (7,217); DiMaggio (6,821); and White (6,550) ... his stolen base on May 8th vs. Minnesota moved him into second place on the all-time Yankee list, and with 242 stolen bases is six behind the Yankee record of 248 set by Hal Chase ... played in 119 games at second base, increasing his all-time Yankee leading total to 1,579 games played at that position ... Willie Randolph has played with 29 shortstops during his tenure with the Yankees—see below for the list:

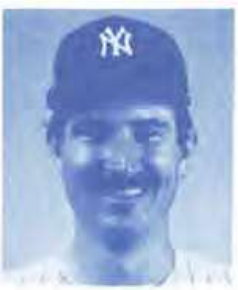
RHODEN, RICHARD ALAN "Rick" (RHP) #26



6-4, 203. Born 5/16/53 in Boynton Beach, FL. Age 34, turns 35 May 16. BR. TR. Resides in Woodland Hills, CA. Single. Children: Tanner (7).

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 12 years, 147 days.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed 5-year contract in 1983 . . . contract was extended to cover the 1988 season with option for 1989, November 26, 1986.

1987 SEASON: Got off to a good start, posting a 6-3, 3.70 ERA mark in first 11 starts through 6/2 . . . in his most impressive start of '87, he tossed his fourth career 2-hitter, 5/6 at Chicago, his first 2-hitter since 8/9/84 vs. the Mets at Shea (only hits were by Ron Hassey & Ron Karkovice) . . . beginning with the 2-hitter on 5/6, through 8/2, Rick made 18 appearances (17 starts), and went 12-3, 3.28 ERA, 43 ER, 118.0 IP . . . his overall record at that point was 14-6, 3.56 ERA in 23 games (22 starts) . . . Rick's lone relief appearance came just prior to the All-Star break, 7/12 vs. Chicago . . . was his first relief appearance since 4/17/83 with Pittsburgh vs. the Cubs (the date he recorded his only major league save) . . . at the All-Star break was 11-5, 3.69 ERA . . . his longest winning streak was 4 games, 5/6 through 5/28 . . . has lifetime home park record of 87-50, .635 W/L% (10-3 at Yankee Stadium, 48-37 at Three Rivers Stadium, and 29-10 at Dodger Stadium).

REGULAR SEASON INJURY: The beginning of the end of Rick's '87 season came on 8/18, when in the sixth inning he was hit on his right shoulder by a line drive off the bat of Seattle's Alvin Davis ... the injury sustained caused him discomfort the remainder of the year ... he did not miss a turn in rotation and won his next start (8/23 at Oakland), but was forced to leave after 5.0 innings with right shoulder stiffness ... pitched just 2.0 innings in 8/29 (1st gm) start vs. Seattle, forced to leave with a stiff right shoulder ... missed next start, but made 2 more before his season ended, 9/7 @ Boston (his last win), and 9/12 at Toronto (last loss) ... in his 4 post injury starts he was 2-2, 5.06 ERA, 9 ER, 16.0 IP, with his longest outing 5.0 IP on 9/7.

PRE-SEASON INJURY: Rick's spring training preparation for 1987 was severely interrupted on March 16 at Winter Haven vs. Boston ... the injury occurred while warming up to begin the second inning of that start ... he suffered an intercostal muscle (muscles between the ribs) strain on the right side ... he left the game at that point, and did not pitch again until 4/1 ... the injury caused him to miss his Opening Day starting assignment on 4/6, delaying his first regular season assignment to 4/10.

NEAR PERFECT FIELDING: Error on 6/18 vs. Baltimore was only miscue of '87, and broke a string of 92 errorless games and 139 errorless chances since last previous error, 8/4/84 vs. the Mets ... was only fifth season in 11 full years he has committed an error ... has just 6 lifetime errors in 500 career total chances, a .988 fielding pct. (150 P.O., 346 assists).

6.0 INNINGS PITCHED OR MORE: In 16 starts in which he pitched 6.0 innings or more, he allowed just 29 ER in 120.1 IP, going 12-3, 2.17 ERA, averaging 7.5 innings per start ... in his other 13 starts, he was 4-7, 7.13 ERA, 47 ER in 59.1 IP.

GENERAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Led Yankees with 16 wins, matching the personal career high he set in 1977 with Los Angeles ... the last Yankee right-hander to win more games was Ed Figueroa, a 20-game winner for the Yankees in 1978 ... this was his sixth straight double figure win season, and ninth of his career ... is one of only eight major league pitchers to win 10+ games in each of the last six seasons (others are: Floyd Bannister, Charlie Hough, Jack Morris, Bill Gullickson, Shane Rawley, John Tudor & Fernando Valenzuela) ... led Yankee staff with 61 walks and 107 strikeouts ... his 4 complete games were second on staff, as were his 29 starts, and 181.2 innings pitched ... was sixth straight season with 100+ Ks, and seventh of career ... see lists below:

RIGHETTI, DAVID ALLEN "Dave" "Rags" (LHP) #19

6-4, 210. Born 11/28/58 in San Jose, CA where he resides. Age 29, turns 30 on November 28. BL. TL. Single. College: San Jose City College.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 6 years and 151 days.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed 3-year contract on December 23, 1987 ... contract extends through 1990 season.

1987 SEASON: With 31 saves tied Jeff Reardon for second in the A.L. behind Tom Henke's league leading 34 ... 60 appearances placed him ninth in league ... the Yankees were 45-15 in the games Dave pitched in ... with 31 saves and 8 wins, he contributed to 43.8% of NY's 89 wins ... was 2-0, 2.70 ERA with 6 saves (in 7 save situations) from opening day through 4/23, his first 9 appearances ... from 4/24 through 6/19 he went 2-3 with 8 saves (in 15 save situations), allowing 20 ER in 30.1 IP, 5.93 ERA ... beginning with his next appearance on 6/23, Righetti appeared in 33 games for the remainder of '87, allowing earned runs in just 8 of those games, going 4-3, with 17 saves, 13 ER, 51.1 IP, 2.28 ERA, and just 4 failed save situations ... had he not allowed 6 ER in 58th and 60th (final) appearances, his stats over his last 33 games would have been: 4-1, with 17 saves, 7 ER, 46.2 IP, 1.35 ERA, and just 2 failed save situations ... at the All-Star break he was 5-3 with 17 saves in 34 games, 3.86 ERA (24 ER, 56.0 IP) and 9 failed save situations ... after the ASB he was 3-3, with 14 saves, 3.00 ERA (13 ER, 39.0 IP) in 26 games with only 4 failed saves ... of Dave's 31 saves, 8 saved wins for starter Rick Rhoden ... had a season high 6 strikeouts (in 2.1 IP), 5/2 @ Minnesota ... threw 4.1 innings, 8/20 @ Seattle, his longest relief outing of '87 ... allowed 4 runs (3 ER) in 2.1 IP his last outing of '87, 10/1 vs Boston, the most runs he had allowed in one outing since 6/20/86 @ Toronto, also allowing 4 runs (George Bell's grand slam) ... with runners on base, he retired his first batter 18 of 27 times ... overall, retired first batter 42 of 60 appearances ... prevented 28 of 39 inherited runners from scoring ... held .262 BA against (95-362).

SAVE/SAVE SITUATIONS: Was successful in 31 of 44 "save situations" this past season, or a 70% success rate ... since assigned to the bullpen prior to the 1984 season, Dave has accumulated 137 saves in 183 save situations, or a 75% success rate ... over that period of time, of the 46 save situations that Dave was not able to record the save, the Yankees went 21-25 W/L, meaning that the Yankees have won 158 of the 183 games Rags entered in to a save situation—an .860 winning percentage ... below is a table showing Righetti's W/L record, saves, failed saves, and Yankee record in the failed situations broken down since 1984:

RIGHETTI AS A RELIEF PITCHER

YEAR	WON-LOSS	SAVES	FAILED SAVES	YANKEE RECORD FAILED SAVES	OVERALL YANKEE RECORD GAMES PITCHED

TOTAL	33-27	137	46	21-25	199-73
					.732 W/L%

GENERAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: His total of 137 saves since assigned to the bullpen in 1984 is the highest among all pitchers over the same period of time—those that follow are: Lee Smith, 133; Jeff Reardon, 130; Dan Quisenberry, 101 ... last year he was selected and played on his second consecutive A.L. All-Star team ... won his second consecutive Rolaids Relief Man of the Year Award, compiling 72 points to edge out Minnesota's Jeff Reardon ... tied with Reardon for his second straight Sporting News Fireman of the Year Award ... currently ranks 13th on all-time save list with 138 ... is 3 saves shy of tying Sparky Lyle (141) for second on all-time Yankee save list, and is 12 short of tying Rich Gossage (150) for first ... this was his third season, out of four in the bullpen, that he recorded better than 30 saves in a single season, and the sixth 30+ save season by a reliever in club history ... 31 saves equals his 1984 figure as the fourth highest single season save total in Yankee history ... see table below:

SAVES

(Since 1969; Top 14 Pitchers with 100 or more)

Rollie Fingers	341	Lee Smith	180
Rich Gossage	289	Kent Tekulve	179

Sparky Lyle	222	Dave Giusti	140
Gene Garber	212	DAVE RIGHETTI	138
Jeff Reardon	193	Gary Lavelle	136

CAREER HOME RUNS ALLOWED: Dave allowed 9 HRs in '87, bringing his career total to 49 HRs allowed ... since going to the bullpen, the most HRs he had allowed in a single season were 5, both '84 and '85 (he allowed just 4 HRs in '86) ... this year Dave gave up 3 HRs to lefthanded hitters, increasing that career total to 11 ... the lefthanded batters that took Rags deep in '87 were: Minnesota's Ken Hrbek, 5/11; Detroit's Matt Nokes, 8/9; and Boston's Mike Greenwell, 10/1 ... allowed 2 HRs on 6/14 vs Milwaukee, a first since 6/18/85 @ Baltimore.

CAREER: 1986—In just his third season out of the bullpen, established a new major league single season save record of 46, breaking the record of 45 previously set by Dan Quisenberry in 1983, later matched by Bruce Sutter in '84 ... in addition to Righetti (46 in '86), Quisenberry (45 in '83 & 44 in '84), Sutter (45 in '84), the only relievers to record 40+ saves are Jeff Reardon (41 in '85) and Steve Bedrosian (40 in '87) ... his 39th save, recorded 9/14 vs. Boston, broke John Hiller's M.L. record of 38 saves by a lefthander, set in 1973 ... his 36th save, notched 9/9 @ Toronto, broke the Yankee single record of 35 set in 1972 by Sparky Lyle ... he saved both ends of a double-header in Boston on 10/4, notching saves 45 & 46, setting the new All-Time mark ... he matched his own Yankee record for games in a single season, appearing in 74 for the second consecutive year ... failed to finish just 6 of those 74 appearances ... was successful in 46 of 56 "save opportunities" ... 8 of his "blown saves" came in his first 32 outings (24 opportunities), and 9 came in his first 36 games (26 opportunities) ... the Yankees were 6-4 in the 10 failed save situations ... failed in 3 of 5 save situations from 4/19 to 4/27 (5 games), allowing 7 runs-earned, 13 hits in 9.1 IP, 6.75 ERA ... failed in 4 of 6 save situations from 5/24 through 6/9 (7 games), allowing 9 runs—7 earned in 8.0 IP, 7.88 ERA ... beginning on 7/3, was successful in 29 of final 30 save opportunities, spanning his final 38 games, 62.0 IP, 44 hits, just 9 runs-earned, 1 HR, 13 walks, 46 strikeouts, 1.31 ERA ... after 6/20 appearance at Toronto (0.2 IP, 3 hits, 4 runs-earned including a George Bell 9th inning grand slam), he did not allow more than 1 run in any of his remaining 43 games: 67.0 IP, 10 runs-earned, 1.34 ERA, with NY 37-6 ... in 9 games from 5/2 through 5/22 was 1-0 with 5 saves, allowing just 4 hits, 0 runs in 11.2 IP, with the 5 saves coming in consecutive outings, 5/5 through 5/13 ... recorded saves in 4 consecutive appearances 6/10 through 6/14, 0 runs, 2 hits, 4.2 IP ... in 15 games from 6/21 through 8/1 was 3-0 with 8 saves, 22.1 IP, 2 runs-earned, 0.81 ERA ... lost back-to-back games (neither a save situation) 8/2 @ Cleveland and 8/5 vs. Milwaukee, allowing 1 run in each contest ... notched saves in 6 consecutive outings 8/8 through 8/22, allowing 0 runs in 10.2 IP ... also awarded saves in 10 straight appearances, 8/28 through 9/15, allowing just 1 run-earned in 15.1 IP, 0.59 ERA ... closed out '86 with saves in his final 4 games, 9/30 to 10/4, allowing 0 runs in 4.2 IP ... between 7/1 (date of his 9th blown save) and 9/23 (date of 10th and final blown save), he recorded saves in 24 consecutive save opportunities ... saved 21 and won 1 of NY's final 28 wins ... his 46 saves were a major factor in Yankee club tying A.L. record of 58 team saves, first set by the Minnesota Twins in 1970 (162 games) ... with 46 saves, he secured 51% of Yankees' 90 wins ... add to 46 saves his 8 wins and he directly contributed to 54 of the club's 90 wins, or 60% ... overall, the Yankees were 60-14 in the games in which Righetti pitched, an .811 winning pct. ... finished fourth in BBWAA voting for the Cy Young Award, finishing behind Roger Clemens, Ted Higuera, and Mike Witt, with Righetti receiving 5 second place and 5 third place votes ... finished tenth in BBWAA voting for A.L. MVP, tallying 71 votes ... also won Rolaids A.L. Relief Man of the Year Award ... named to AP All-Star team ... selected A.L. Fireman of the Year by The Sporting News ... had .226 BA against ... 1985—his 74 appearances set a new Yankee record, breaking Sparky Lyle's mark of 72 games set in 1977 ... began season impressively, not allowing any runs in first 7 outings, going 1-0 with 4 saves, 8.1 IP ... struck out a season high four batters three times: 5/30 vs. California; 6/30 vs. Milwaukee; and 9/5 vs. Oakland ... had rough stint from 5/25 through 6/20, going 1-4 with just 2 saves (17.1 IP, 14 ER, 7.27 ERA) ... beginning with next appearance, went 8-1 with 18 saves through season's end (14 ER, 60.1 IP, 2.09 ERA), lowering overall ERA from 3.66 to 2.78 ... was 29-for-43 in "save situations" ... from 7/29 through 9/29 went 5-0 with 10 saves ... did not allow an ER in 13 consecutive outings, 8/9 through 31 (17.2 IP, 17 K, 5 BB), lowering ERA from 3.26 to 2.62 ... was named A.L. Player of the Month in August (4-0 with 5 saves, 1.17 ERA, finishing 11 of 16 games, 23.0 IP, 14 hits, 3 ER, 22 Ks) ... allowed just 5 HRs in 107.0 IP ... recorded saves in last 4 straight games ... he finished 60 of his 74 games—81% ... was 9-1, 2.24 ERA at Yankee Stadium ... opposing batters combined for a .231 BA against ... 1984—moved to the bullpen where he saved 31 of 40 "save situations" ... at the time, only Lyle (35 in '72) and Gossage (33 in '80) had more saves in a season as Yankees ... recorded 500th career strikeout vs. Angel's Brian Downing, 9/1 @ California ... 1983—THE NO-HITTER: Beat Boston at Yankee Stadium on 7/4, 4-0 with no-hitter (9.0 IP, 0 hits, 0 runs, 4 BB, 9 K) ... threw 132 pitches ... was sunny and hot, temp. in the 90's ... only 4 Bosox reached base (all via walks: Rice, twice; Nichols & Newman) ... Rice was erased with a DP on one occasion, while Nichols was CS off first by Righetti ... was first no-hitter by a Yankee since Don Larsen's perfect game in the 1956 World Series, 5th game, October 8th vs. Brooklyn ... was first regular season no-hitter by a Yankee since Allie Reynolds no-hit Boston on 9/28/51 at Yankee Stadium, 1st game of DH ... was first no-hitter by a Yankee southpaw since George Mogridge no-hit Boston, 4/24/17 ... was 10-3 in first half of season ... ended year 7-3 vs. A.L. East ... pitched career highs in starts, CG, IP, wins, & Ks ... K'd 11 Chisox on 8/15 ... K'd 7 or more on 12 occasions ... hurled back-to-back shutouts on 6/29 vs. Baltimore (1st ML shutout) and the no-hitter ... 1982—suffered slight sophomore jinx, but still led the Yankee staff with 163 Ks (3rd in A.L.) ... 1981—A.L. Rookie of the Year, narrowly missing the ERA crown with 2.06 ERA (fell 1.2 innings short) ... in post-season, started and won game 2 of Division Series vs. Milwaukee ... relieved in game 5 of that series and earned the deciding win ... won clinching game (#3) of ALCS at Oakland ... started and got a no-decision in game 3 of World Series ... 1980—had disappointing season at Columbus, hampered by control problems ... did K 139 in 142.0 IP ... was 3-0, 1.80 in instructional league ... 1979—made major league debut 9/16 vs. Detroit at Yankee Stadium on "Catfish Hunter Day", getting a no-decision ... named to Topps National Association Class AAA All-Star team ... 1978—K'd 21 batters for Tulsa, 7/16 at Midland, striking out the side four times and had a stretch of 7 straight K's.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Grew up in San Jose, CA where he was All-League in baseball at Pioneer High School ... also played basketball ... attended San Jose City College where he was teammate of Toronto pitcher Dave Stieb ... won Junior College Player of the Year honors in 1977 ... played American Legion ball against Carney Lansford ... grew up an A's and Giants fan with Willie McCovey his favorite player ... his brother Steve played in the Texas organization from '77 through '79 ... his father, Leo, is a former Yankee minor league shortstop, and first saw Dave pitch professionally in clinching game of ALCS vs. Oakland in 1981 ... during off-season '86-87, posed with Magic Johnson for anti-drug poster "Anyone can be a pro. It takes a special person to say no."

SANTANA, RAFAEL FRANCISCO (SS) #17

6-1, 160. Born 1/13/58 in La Romana, DR. Age 30, turned 30 January 31. Resides in La Romana, DR. BR. TR.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 3 years and 168 days.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed two-year contract through 1989 season.

1987 SEASON: Santana was acquired by the Yankees along with minor league pitcher Victor Garcia from the New York Mets on December 11, 1987 (the final day of the Dallas winter meetings) in exchange for catcher Phil Lombardi, outfielder Darren Reed, and pitcher Steve Frey . . . it was the first-ever trade involving major league players between the two New York teams . . . originally began his professional career in the Yankee organization . . . was the Mets' starting shortstop each of the last three seasons and in 1987 he played 139 games while hitting .255 (112-439) with 41 runs scored, 21 doubles, five home runs and 44 RBIs . . . his home run, RBI, and runs scored totals all represented new career highs . . . his 44 RBIs also fell five shy of the Mets' club record for RBIs in a season by a shortstop (49 by Ed Bressoud in 1966) . . . started the year 0-16 . . . his five home runs were two more than he hit in his first three full major league seasons combined . . . his first hit didn't come until his 17th at-bat, a single against Charlie Puleo in the eighth inning of a 12-4 loss to the Braves on April 12th at Shea Stadium . . . then he began to pick up the pace . . . in an eight game period from April 12-21, he went 10-29 (.345) to go from .000 to .238 . . . paced the Mets' 9-6 victory over Pittsburgh on April 21st with a three-run homer in the fourth inning off Bob Kipper . . . it was his first three-RBI game of his career . . . he batted safely in six of seven games from May 12-17, going 11-27 (.407) in that stretch to boost his average from .190 on April 27th to .259 on May 17th . . . that span included four multi-hit games (three two-hit games and one three-hit game) . . . slumped to .238 on May 23rd . . . however, a three-hit game at San Francisco on May 25th began a sustained hot streak . . . starting with that contest, he hit in 14 of 21 games, going 20-63

(.317) to increase his average to .268 on June 14th, and had 10 RBIs in those games ... tied his career high with three RBIs in 13-2 victory over the Cubs in Chicago on June 10th ... from June 25th to July 10th he hit at a .392 pace (20-51) to raise his batting average from .259 to .290 on July 10th, his best mark of the year ... helped spark a doubleheader sweep in Atlanta on July 7th as he came through with the game-winning RBI in both contests ... his two-run single led the 6-2 first game win, while his RBI double sparked a 5-1 second game victory ... had a solid two-month period (covering 49 games) from June 25-August 23 ... went 49-116 (.301) in that span to lift his batting average to .279 on August 23rd and had 12 multi-hit games in that span ... that 49-game streak ended when he hit safely in 14 of 17 games, from August 5-23, batting .339 (19-56) in those 17 games to lift his average from .267 to .279 ... hit safely in his last seven games of that span, from August 15-23, his longest hitting streak of the year ... however, in his final 34 games, from August 24th through the end of the season, he hit only .179 (19-106) to finish with his final .255 batting average ... had 28 multi-hit games, including four three-hit games ... was 0-1 in his one pinch-hitting appearance, on July 31st at Montreal ... played 138 games at shortstop and had a fielding percentage of .973, committing 17 errors in 626 total chances.

CAREER: 1986—Steadily increased his average the final two months of the year ... was hitting only .176 at end of July but went on to raise his average to his final .218 mark ... batted .280 (28-100) in his final 33 games ... posted a career-high nine-game hitting streak from August 24th to September 2nd, batting .424 (14-33) in that span with five two-hit games ... had two three-hit games during the season ... on May 13th he played second base for the first time as a Met ... he had played nine games at second for the Cardinals in 1983 ... struck out only 6.60 times per 100 plate appearances with men on base, the eighth best mark in the National League ... started each of the Mets' 13 post-season games ... batted .176 (3-17) in the League Championship Series against the Astros and .250 (5-20) in the World Series ... hit safely in four of the seven Series games ... against Houston in the LCS he established a NLCS record for most putouts (13), assists (18), and chances accepted (31) by a shortstop in a six-game series ... in the Series he had a pair of hits off Roger Clemens in Game Two at Shea Stadium ... his RBI single in the seventh inning of Game Seven off Calvin Schiraldi knocked in the second run of the three-run rally that put the Mets ahead to stay in their eventual 8-5 win ... hit his one home run of the year on August 26th in San Diego off Dave Dravecky ... 1985—appeared in 153 games at shortstop, the most for a Met since Frank Taveras played 153 games in 1979 ... hit his only homer of the season on April 17th, a two-run HR in Pittsburgh off Cecilio Guante ... had two eight-game hitting streaks, and in the second of those, from June 9-16, he hit .464 (13-28) to boost his average from .214 to .251 ... in a 66-game period from June 21st to September 6th, he hit .280 (66-236) to raise his average from .241 to .262 ... he led NL shortstops in putouts with 301 ... 1984—was purchased by the Mets from Tidewater of the International League on July 9th ... joined the Mets in Atlanta on July 12th and was utilized as a reserve in his first week with New York ... however, he would become the team's starting shortstop on July 20th in Cincinnati ... on July 19th Ron Gardenhire injured his hamstring against the Reds and Santana took over for him the next day ... he did not relinquish his job until he was placed on the disabled list on August 25th with a lacerated right thumb ... had his only major league four-hit game on August 11th vs Pittsburgh at Shea Stadium ... sustained the injury to his right thumb in the second inning of a twi-night doubleheader against the Giants at Shea on August 24th ... incurred the injury while sliding into second base trying to steal and collided with Giants' shortstop Fran Mullins ... was placed on the disabled list on August 25th and was activated on September 9th ... hit his first major league home run off Jerry Koosman of the Phillies on September 26th at Shea ... before joining the Mets he was hitting .278 at Tidewater in 77 games, and played every position in the infield during that time (two games at first, six at second, 65 at shortstop, and nine at third) ... was released by the St. Louis Cardinals on January 17th, and was signed by Tidewater as a free agent on January 30th ... 1983—batted .214 in 30 games with the Cardinals in his first major league experience ... also batted .281 in 77 games with Louisville, the Cards' AAA affiliate ... 1982—in his first full season of AAA ball, he appeared in 41 games at second base, 73 games at third and 17 at shortstop for the Redbirds ... stole 16 bases, the second-highest total on the team ... 1981—with Arkansas he led Texas League shortstops in fielding average (.955) and tied for the lead in double plays ... was on the Yankees' 40-man roster when he was traded to the Cards for a player to be named later on February 16, 1981 ... the Cardinals sent pitcher George Frazier to the Yanks to complete the deal on June 7th ... 1980—split the season between Ft. Lauderdale and Nashville of the Class AA Southern League ... 1979—was named to the Florida State League All-Star team for the second straight season while playing for Ft. Lauderdale and led the league's shortstops with a .982 fielding percentage ... 1978—was the shortstop on the Florida State League's All-Star team and participated in two triple plays ... 1977—hit .261 at Oneonta of the Class A NY-Penn League in his pro debut year ... was signed by Epy Guerrero of the Yankees as a free agent on August 31, 1976.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 9 years, 88 days.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed contract for 1988 season.

1987 SEASON: Appeared in 57 games, all in relief, the third most appearances he's made in a season in his career ... his 57 appearances ranked tied for 13th place in the American League and was second on the Yankee staff, behind Dave Righetti's 60 appearances ... posted a record of 4-3 and eight saves, a 3.50 ERA, 30 walks and 78 strikeouts in 92.2 innings pitched ... the eight saves are eight more than he had in all of 1986, seven more than he had in 1985 and 1986 combined, and equal to his total of 1984, 1985, and 1986 combined ... they are the most saves he has registered in a single season since he recorded nine saves in 1983 while with the Baltimore Orioles and represent his fourth highest single season save total ... his eight saves ranked tied for 18th place in the A.L. and also were second on the Yankees, behind Righetti's club leading 31 saves ... his 78 strikeouts were the third largest single season strikeout total of his career and ranked fifth on the Yankees ... his ratio of 7.6 strikeouts per nine innings pitched led the Yankees ... had a walk-to-strikeout ratio of 1:2.6 ... was placed on the disabled list on April 2nd (retroactive to March 28th) with bursitis in his right shoulder and began the season on the D.L., where he remained until he was activated on April 15th ... made his first appearance of the year on April 22nd vs Detroit ... his longest outing of the year came in his fifth appearance, on May 8th vs Minnesota, going 5.1 innings pitched and giving up three runs on seven hits, including home runs by Tom Brunansky and Mark Davidson, the only time all season he gave up two homers in a game ... picked up his first two saves of the season in back-to-back appearances, on May 18th at Oakland and on May 25th at California ... in his first 16 appearances, through June 17th, he was 0-1 with two saves and a 4.05 ERA ... however, in his next 14 appearances, from June 18th through July 16th, he gave up just one earned run (on June 29th at Toronto) in 15.0 IP (a 0.60 ERA), going 1-0 with one save in that span and lowering his ERA from 4.05 to 2.98 ... did go three consecutive appearances, from August 5-11, giving up a solo home run in each of those outings, and allowed five earned runs in 4.2 IP in those three games ... followed that by pitching 11.0 scoreless innings (his longest scoreless streak of the season) in five appearances from August 14-23, giving up just five hits with two walks and 13 strikeouts, going 1-0 with two saves in that span ... in the final game of that streak, on August 23rd at Oakland, he struck out a season high six batters (one shy of his career high) while pitching 4.0 scoreless innings and gaining a save ... the beginning of that scoreless streak, on August 14th vs Cleveland, also started a span covering his last 17 outings of the season when he allowed just nine earned runs in 29.0 IP, a 2.79 ERA, with seven walks and 22 strikeouts, going 1-1 with four saves ... had one "blown save", coming on September 16th vs Milwaukee, and was charged with the Yankees' 5-4 loss ... with runners on base he retired the first batter he faced in 24 of 33 instances, and overall he retired the first batter he faced in 42 of his 57 appearances ... for the season he prevented 42 of the 54 runners he inherited from scoring, including 26 of the first 27 runners he inherited (covering his first 30 outings, through July 16th) ... had a batting average against of .235 (83-353), including .207 (43-208) versus righthanders and .276 (40-145) versus lefthanders ... at home he was 3-1 with a 2.92 ERA and four saves in 30 games, while on the road he was 1-2 with a 4.28 ERA and four saves in 27 games ... all 443 career major league appearances have been in relief.

CAREER: 1986—Began the year with the San Diego Padres, but was traded to the Yankees on July 9, 1986, in exchange for Ed Whitson ... appeared in 30 games with the Padres, all in relief, and compiled a record of 1-3 with no saves and a 3.77 ERA ... in his first 10 outings for the Padres, through May 4th, he gave up just 2 earned runs in 13.1 IP (1.35 ERA) ... in his remaining 20 outings for San Diego, covering 32.0 IP, he gave up 17 earned runs (4.78 ERA) ... following his trade to New York, he made 24 appearances for the Yankees, all in relief, and compiled a record of 4-1 with no saves (in one save opportunity), a 3.83 ERA and a .232 (177 at-bats, 41 hits) batting average against ... made his Yankee debut on July 10th at Minnesota, pitching 1.2 scoreless innings in the Yanks' 11-1 win ... picked up his first win as a Yankee on August 12th vs Cleveland, pitching 4.2 scoreless innings of 2-hit ball in relief of Joe Niekro and received credit for the Yanks' 6-4 victory after Dave Righetti saved the win ... in the seven games bracketed by his first and third Yankee wins (from August 12th through August 20th), he went 3-0 with a 0.52 ERA to lower his overall ERA as a Yankee to 2.95 ... included in that span was a scoreless streak of 9.0 innings, covering 5 outings from

August 13-20 . . . in his remaining 8 appearances from that point, beginning on August 25th, through the end of the season, he went 1-1 with a 7.45 ERA to raise his final Yankee ERA to 3.83 . . . his lone loss as a Yankee came on Sept. 3rd at Oakland, giving up the winning run in the Yankees' 5-3 loss . . . he retired the first batter he faced 18 of 24 times, including 14/17 with runners on base . . . he prevented 23 of 30 runners he inherited from scoring . . . at Yankee Stadium he was 3-0 with a 4.18 ERA and a .255 batting average against, and on the road he was 1-1 with a 3.39 ERA and a .197 BA against . . . in his 54 games overall with the Padres and the Yankees in '86, he was 5-4 with no saves and a 3.80 ERA . . . 1985—was signed by the Padres as a free agent on January 17, 1985 . . . after struggling throughout the first two months of the year, he got untracked from June 2-22, when he worked 10.0 innings in 7 games and allowed 2 earned runs for a 1.80 ERA . . . picked up his only save as a Padre on June 22 against the Giants in San Diego, working 1.0 perfect innings to preserve a 2-1 win for Eric Show on a combined 2-hitter, the staff's lowest hit game of '85 . . . his only win of the year came on July 8th at Wrigley Field, pitching 3.2 innings of 1-hit ball against the Cubs in the Padres' 8-4 victory . . . that began a stretch of 5 straight appearances without allowing a run, covering 8.2 IP . . . 1984—spent the entire 1984 season with the Cubs, joining them from the Oakland A's on March 26, 1984 in exchange for Stan Kyles and Stan Broderick . . . he won the most games in his career (10) and added 7 saves to help the Cubs to their first Eastern Division title . . . won his first 3 decisions of the year and by July 12th was 7-1 with 6 saves . . . allowed only 3 earned runs in his first 21.1 IP (1.27 ERA), covering 14 appearances . . . from June 28-July 3 he fanned 12 batters pitching 9.2 shutout innings covering three appearances while earning a save in each game . . . pitched 2.0 innings over two games in the National League Championship Series (his third post-season appearance of his career) and was not involved in a decision while posting a 4.50 ERA . . . 1983—joined the Oakland A's on December 9, 1983 from the Baltimore Orioles in exchange for Wayne Gross, but was a member of the A's for only four off-season months before he was dealt to the Cubs prior to the '84 campaign . . . he was a member of the Orioles' organization for 6 years before his trade to Oakland . . . finished second on the O's in saves (9) during the World Championship year of '83, with 8 of those saves coming after the All-Star break . . . however, he did not appear in the ALCS vs the White Sox or the World Series vs the Phillies . . . 1982—had an injury plagued year, missing the first and last months of the season . . . did finish second on the staff in appearances (50) and saves (12) . . . due to shoulder stiffness, he opened the '82 campaign with 5 appearances at Rochester . . . 1981—went 4-2 and added 7 saves and a 3.89 ERA in 31 games . . . 1980—had his best year as a professional, appearing in 64 games and setting a Baltimore record with 26 saves (4th best in the A.L.) . . . in the second half of the season, he went 5-0 with 14 saves and a 2.01 ERA in 30 appearances . . . capped the year by earning the American League Pitcher of the Month honors for September . . . 1979—in his first full season in the major leagues, he went 3-1 in 29 outings and a career-low ERA of 1.71 . . . also made 4 appearances in the 1979 World Series vs Pittsburgh . . . was the winning pitcher in Game Four at Three Rivers Stadium . . . in that game he had an RBI single in his first major league at-bat, the last time a pitcher hit safely in World Series competition until 1986, when the Mets' Dwight Gooden and Jesse Orosco had base hits vs Boston . . . 1978—shared time between Baltimore and Rochester . . . the last time he was used as a starter came in Rochester when he made two starts that year . . . 1977—became an Oriole prior to the '77 season after being released by the Chicago White Sox during spring training . . . spent the entire year at Charlotte ("AA"), winning 10 games and saving 5 . . . 1976—played in the White Sox farm system, posting a 9-8 record and a 2.89 ERA at Knoxville ("AA") and an 0-2 record and a 5.59 ERA at Iowa ("AAA") . . . 1975—spent most of the season at Knoxville, posting a 3-4 record and a 4.23 ERA . . . made his major league debut on September 7, 1975 in his only appearance with the White Sox, a 1.0 inning stint vs Minnesota.

WASHINGTON, CLAUDELL (OF) #18

6-2, 194. Born 8/31/54 in Los Angeles, CA. Age 33, turns 34 on August 31. Resides in Orinda, CA. BL. TL. Married: Cynthia. Children: Camille, Claudell III, and Crystal.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 13 years and 90 days.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed a two-year contract December 11, 1986 ... contract extends through 1988 season.

1987 SEASON: Nagging injuries bothered him all season ... started off quickly and put together a five-game hitting streak (his longest of the season) from May 13-17, batting 12-23 (.522) with two doubles, two homers and eight RBIs in that span ... his two home runs came in consecutive games, on May 13th (a two-run HR off Jose Guzman) and May 14th (a solo homer off Edwin Correa) vs Texas (the only time all season he homered in consecutive games), and he had three RBIs in each of those two games ... included in that streak were two three-hit games and one four-hit game, on May 17th at Seattle, going 4-6 (his only four-hit game of the year), but he suffered a pulled left groin muscle in his last at-bat ... was placed on the 15-day disabled list the following day (May 18) due to that injury ... at the time, he had played in 27 games and was hitting .348 (24-69) with three home runs and 15 RBIs ... was activated from the disabled list on June 2nd ... on June 10th vs Toronto he went 3-3 but was forced to leave the game with a pulled left hamstring and did not appear again until June 20th ... on June 22nd at Baltimore left game with a sore right lower leg, which limited him to designated and pinch hitting duties for his next seven games, through June 30th ... at that point he was hitting .228 (13-57) in his 19 games since returning from the disabled list with just one homer and eight RBIs, lowering his overall average from .348 to .294 ... had four RBIs, his high as a Yankee, on July 7th vs Minnesota, including a three-run HR off Juan Berenguer ... at the All-Star break he was hitting .284 (48-169) with five homers and 30 RBIs in 57 games, but he hit .273 (39-143) with four home runs and 14 RBIs in 45 games after the break ... in his first game after the break, on July 16th at Texas, he scored four runs ... on July 18th at Texas he went 1-3, a solo home run off Jose Guzman, to lift his average to .302, the last time in the season it would be at or over .300 ... that game began a string of nine games (through July 31st) in which four of his eight hits were for extra bases (three home runs and a double) ... after hitting his last home run in that span, a solo HR off Walt Terrell on July 31st vs Detroit, he went 86 at-bats over 24+ games without hitting another homer before he connected on a pinch-hit three-run home run (his 9th and final HR of the season) on September 8th at Boston ... in those 24 full games he played from August 2nd through September 6th without a homer, he batted just .214 (18-84) with three RBIs (all coming on August 23rd at Oakland), lowering his overall average from .287 to .266 ... included in that stretch, though, was his second five-game hitting streak of the year, from August 22-28 ... on August 30th vs Seattle he registered the 1,600th hit of his major league career and finished the season with a career total of 1,611 base hits ... on September 22nd at Milwaukee (Game 2) he left the game with a sore right hamstring and did not play the rest of the season ... finished with an average of .279 (87-312) in 102 games with nine home runs and 44 RBIs ... had two game-winning RBIs, on June 7th at Milwaukee and on August 23rd at Oakland ... had 27 multi-hit games, including his one four-hit game and five three-hit games ... had one 4-RBI game and four three-RBI games ... finished with ten stolen bases in 11 attempts (including two stolen bases on July 20th at Minnesota), marking the ninth consecutive season he has reached double figures in stolen bases (and the 12th time in his 14 big league seasons) ... he batted .259 (65-251) against righthanders with eight home runs and 41 RBIs, and hit .361 (22-61) vs lefthanders with one homer and 3 RBIs ... as a pinch-hitter he batted .190 (4-21) with one homer and 4 RBIs and his 21 at-bats as a pinch-hitter was second on the Yankees behind Dan Pasqua's 22 pinch-hit at-bats ... batted .297 (11-37) in 13 games as a designated hitter with one home run and six RBIs ... led the Yankees with a .362 average (25-69) with runners in scoring position ... of his nine homers, four were solo home runs, three were 2-run homers, and two were three-run home runs ... had a fielding percentage of .988 in 72 games in the outfield, committing just one error (on May 1st at Minnesota) in 171 total chances ... was used mainly as a centerfielder, playing two games in left field (June 10th vs Toronto and June 22nd at Baltimore) and one game in right field (September 14th vs Milwaukee) ... one of 34 players to perform for both the Mets and the Yankees.

CAREER: 1986—Acquired by the Yankees along with Paul Zuvella on June 29th from the Atlanta Braves in exchange for Ken Griffey ... at the time of the trade, he was hitting .270 (37/137) with the Braves in 32 games with 17 runs, 11 doubles, 5 homers, and 14 RBIs, and was 4/11 in stolen base attempts ... with the Yankees, he played 54 games and batted .237 (32/135) with 19 runs, 5 doubles, 6 home runs, and 16 RBIs and was 6/6 in stolen base attempts ... overall with both clubs for the season he hit .254 (69/272) in 86 games with 36 runs, 16 doubles, 11 home runs and 30 RBIs while stealing 10 bases in 17 attempts ... started the season slowly, hitting just .211 (15/71) in 20 games through May 5th with 2 HRs and 4 RBIs ... in that span he missed four games after suffering a pulled goin muscle vs. Los Angeles on April 19th ... in nine games from May 6-17, he batted .333 (10/30) with 3 home runs and 7 RBIs to raise his average to .248 ... went 3/4 with 1 HR and 3 RBIs on May 9th vs. Philadelphia ... went 3/5 with 1 HR and 3 RBIs (including the game-winner) on May 13th at New York ... however, after complaining of neck stiffness, he was placed on the 15-day disabled list on May 19th (retroactive to May 18th) and missed almost a month of action ... was activated before the game vs. Cincinnati on June 16th ... played 11 games with the Braves following his activation until his trade, and in those 11 contests he hit .333 (12/36) ... included in those outings was a 3/5 performance on June 18th vs. Los Angeles and a 4/5 outing (the 4 hits representing his season high) on June 23rd at Los Angeles

... made his Yankee debut on June 30th vs. Detroit, going 1/4 ... went 3/5 vs. Detroit on July 3rd, including his first home run as a Yankee, a solo HR off Eric King ... had another 3-hit game on July 5th at Chicago, going 3/5 with his second Yankee home run, a solo HR off Gene Nelson ... after 11 games with the Yankees, through July 12th, he was batting .343 (12/35) with 8 runs, 3 home runs, and 6 RBIs (including two GWRBIs) ... hit .333 (6/18) over a five-game stretch from June 21-27 with 3 runs, 2 homers, and 5 RBIs ... at that point, after 20 games with the Yankees, he was hitting .281 (18/64) with 11 runs, 5 homers, and 11 RBIs ... in his remaining 34 games through the end of the season, he hit .197 (14/71) with 8 runs, 1 homer, and 5 RBIs ... entered 11 of his final 12 games in a pinch-hitting capacity ... started 29 games after joining the Yankees ... as a pinch hitter with the Yanks, he batted .227 (5/22) with one home run (a solo HR off Walt Terrell on Sept. 26th vs Detroit) and 2 RBIs ... vs lefties he hit .214 (3/14) with no homers or RBIs, and vs. righties he hit .240 (29-121) with 6 homers and 16 RBIs ... 1985—started 90 games in right field but was platooned at that position the latter part of the season ... hit .290 vs righties and .206 in his limited at-bats vs lefties ... hit 14 of his 15 home runs vs righthanders ... led the Braves with 14 stolen bases and with six triples ... reached the 5,000 at bat mark in the major leagues with a home run on June 13th vs. Cincinnati ... stole three bases in one game (April 25th at Houston) for the fourth time in his career ... hit three home runs in three games between June 1-4 ... batted .357 (15/42) with 3 doubles, two triples, and one home run in a 12-game stretch from July 10-27 ... 1984—hit a career high 17 home runs and batted over .300 most of the season before a succession of minor injuries limited his play to only two appearances after August ... during the early part of the season, he has 12 doubles, 11 homers, and a .324 average at the All-Star break, earning him a spot on the National League All-Star team ... of his 17 homers, four were hit off Cincinnati's Mario Soto, including two in the same game, on April 18th ... hit a first-inning lead-off home run on five occasions ... led the Braves in stolen bases with 21 and was second on the club in batting (.286), home runs, runs scored (62), RBIs (61) and total bases (195) and finished third in hits (119) and at-bats (416) ... 1983—had a disappointing season, although he did hit .278 ... had just 9 home runs and 44 RBIs in 134 games ... 1982—helped lead the Braves to the N.L. West title ... was named N.L. "Player of the Month" for September because of his play down the stretch, and provided incentive to his teammates on a West Coast trip, inviting them to his home to view his World Series trophy, telling his fellow Braves "this is what we're playing for" ... topped the Braves in stolen bases (33) and triples (6) ... tied Dale Murphy for club leadership in game-winning RBIs and finished second in runs scored (94) ... tied an Atlanta record with three stolen bases in a Sept. 28th game vs San Francisco ... had three game-winning RBIs during the 13-game winning streak that began the Braves' season, including a two-run ninth inning single which won game no. 13 ... 1981—in his first at-bat in an Atlanta uniform, he doubled as the leadoff batter Opening Night, April 10, 1981, and later scored ... led the Braves with a .291 average ... 1980—was granted free agency on October 31, 1980, and signed with the Braves on November 15th ... spent the second half of the 1980 season with the Mets, and tied three New York records: hit three home runs in one game (at Los Angeles on June 21st), three doubles in one game (vs Atlanta on July 30th), and had RBIs in seven consecutive games in July ... was acquired by the Mets from the Chicago White Sox on June 7th in exchange for pitcher Jesse Anderson ... 1979—in his only full season with the White Sox, he hit .280 in 131 games with 79 runs, 13 homers, and 66 RBIs ... hit three home runs vs Detroit on July 14th and the only others to hit three homers in a game in both leagues are Babe Ruth and Johnny Mize ... 1978—began the season with the Texas Rangers, but was traded along with outfielder Rusty Torres and cash to the White Sox for outfielder Bobby Bonds on May 16 ... was on the disabled list from May 22nd to June 16th ... 1977—hit .284 with the Rangers in 129 games with 12 home runs and 68 RBIs ... was on the disabled list from May 27th to June 11th ... was traded from the Oakland A's to Texas for pitcher Jim Umbarger, infielder Rodney Scott and cash estimated at $100,000 on March 26, 1977 ... 1976—hit .257 in his final season with Oakland ... was selected to the 1976 American League All-Star team and singled in his only at-bat ... was on the disabled list from August 16th to September 1st ... 1975—hit a career-high .308 with the A's in 148 games, with a career-high 182 base hits ... his 77 RBIs is the second best single season of his career ... also had a career high 40 stolen bases ... 1974—at age 19 was called up to the majors with Oakland and was later named to the Major League Rookie team in just his third pro season ... tied a World Series record for most positions played when he played all three outfield positions in the 1974 World Series ... batted .571 (4/7) in the '74 Series against the Dodgers.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Graduated from Berkeley (CA) High School in 1972 ... was signed by Oakland during Charlie Finley's regime off the Berkeley sandlots following graduation ... was a member of the track team but did not play baseball in high school ... was scouted while playing Connie Mack ball.

Hit three home runs in a game, July 14, 1979 and June 22, 1980.
Led Midwest League in total bases with 218 in 1973.

WINFIELD, DAVID MARK "Dave" "Winnie" (RF) #31

6-6, 220. Born 10/3/51 in St. Paul, MN. Age 36, turns 37 on October 3. Resides in Teaneck, NJ. BR. TR. Married: Tonya Turner 2/18/88. Child: Lauren Shanel (5). College: University of Minnesota.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 14 years, 105 days.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed 10-year contract on December 15, 1980 . . . contract extends thru 1990 season.

1987 SEASON: Although streaky, he had an above average first half, but a below average second half . . . was first full season since 1980 that he did not record 100 RBIs . . . 22 doubles were fewest he's recorded in a season since 20 in 1975 . . . opened the season hitting safely in 12 of first 14 games through 4/21, going 20/50, .400 BA . . . in 12 games from 4/22 through 5/5, went 8-42, .190 BA with overall BA falling to .304 . . . had the first of two season-long 12-game hitting streaks from 5/6 through 5/19, going 15-48, .312 BA, with 3 doubles, 4 HRs & 10 RBIs . . . following the streak, fell into a 16-80 (.200 BA) skein, from 5/20 to 6/14, with overall BA falling from .307 to a season low .268 . . . Winfield was scalding hot the month prior to the All-Star break, 6/15 to 7/12, going 35-99, .354 BA (including his second 12-game hitting streak, 6/15-27), hitting safely in 22 of 25 games, with 5 doubles, 8 HRs, & 26 RBIs . . . at the All-Star break was hitting .295 in 85 games, with 20 HRs & 68 RBIs . . . was voted to start All-Star game for A.L.—his 7th All-Star start (including last 5 years), his 11th straight All-Star game appearance . . . played all 13 innings of All-Star game . . . through the remainder of '87, his overall BA fluctuated in the .285 to .275 range . . . went 64-256, .250 BA in 71 games after the All-Star break, with just 7 HRs & 29 RBIs . . . longest 0-for of '87 came 8/15 (last AB) through 8/22 (first AB) . . . went 16 games without a HR, 8/5 through 8/23 . . . had four 2-HR games: 4/23 @ Cleveland; 5/18 @ Oakland; 6/16 vs. Baltimore; & 6/29 @ Toronto . . . on 6/29 off Toronto's Tom Henke, hit his seventh career grand slam, and drove in six runs to match a career high . . . had 4-hits, 9/7 @ Boston . . . in 23 games with both Henderson and Mattingly out, he went 31-88, .352 BA with 7 HRs, and 25 RBIs . . . his sacrifice bunt on 8/30 vs. Seattle was his first since 9/12/82, and only the 12th of his career . . . was 2-4 with 3 RBIs as a pinch-hitter . . . went 6-28, .214 BA with 0 HRs and 4 RBIs as a DH . . . had .989 fielding percentage . . . went 53-151, .351 BA with runners in scoring position.

GENERAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Played in 156 games, highest total since appearing 162 games for San Diego in 1980 . . . 27 HRs was his fourth best season total . . . .275 BA was up from .262 in 1986, but below his .286 career and his .288 Yankee averages coming into '87 . . . with 97 RBIs, fell just 3 short of becoming the first Yankee since Joe DiMaggio to drive in 100 or more runs for six straight seasons (DiMaggio had 100+ RBIs for seven straight years, 1936-'42).

ALL-TIME LISTS: Finished '87 with 332 lifetime HRs, tied with Bobby Bonds for 43rd on the all-time HR list—Joe Adcock holds 42nd place with 336 career HRs . . . began '87 in 19th place on the all-time Yankee HR list with 151, but added 27 HRs this past season, moving up to 11th place—needs just 5 HRs to break into Yankee top 10, which would tie him with Tommy Henrich (see index, Top 20 Yankees) . . . in his six full years with NY (excluding '81 strike season), Winfield has averaged 28 HRs per season—should he reach that sum in '88, he will total 206 Yankee HRs, becoming one of only nine Yankees to break the 200 HR barrier, and will move up to 7th on the Yankee list . . . with 705 RBIs as a Yankee, passed Thurman Munson (701), and moved into 15th place on that all-time Yankee list—should move up to 11th place by end of '88 . . . won his fifth Rawlings Gold Glove Award in the last six years, and his seventh overall . . . see tables below for additional Winfield information:

CAREER: 1986—Had good numbers for most major leaguers, but slightly below Dave Winfield standards ... became the first Yankee to reach the 100 RBI mark for five consecutive seasons since Joe DiMaggio did it seven straight years, 1936-42 ... RBI #100 came 9/29 at Yankee Stadium vs. Toronto ... his 278th at-bat, coming in the sixth inning, 7/5 at Chicago, was career number 7,000 ... his 65th hit, a fifth inning RBI triple, 7/7 @ Texas off Mickey Mahler, was career hit number 2,000 ... homerun number 19, a 2-run, second inning blast, 8/20 off Seattle's Mike Moore, was career HR number 300, becoming only the 54th player in history to reach that peak ... got off to a slow start, hitting just .228 (13/57) with 1 HR, 8 RBI's after first 15 games with 10 walks, 12 strikeouts ... went 11/30, .367 over next 9 games, raising overall BA to .276 on 5/4 ... that hot streak was followed by another cold spell—a 10-game stretch from 5/5–5/15, going 4/36, .111 BA ... had just 3 HRs through first 35 games ... came around to hit in 7 straight, 6/16–6/24 (his longest hitting streak until September), going 10/29, .345 BA, 3 HRs, 10 RBI's, raising BA to .257 ... that streak included a 3/5, 6 RBI performance vs. Seattle, May 17, plus 2 runs, a double and his 6th career grand slam (NY's lone grand slam of '86) ... the 6 RBI's matched his career high, now accomplished 4 times ... from 5/25 through 7/5 went 23/127, .181 BA in 36 games, with 4 doubles, 1 triple, 6 HRs, 19 RBIs, 20 walks, 30 strikeouts with overall BA falling from .257 to .222, his lowest point of '86 ... hit second in batting order for first time in his career 6/27 vs. Toronto ... made first career appearance at third base 7/2 vs. Detroit in 9th inning—had no fielding chances ... went 17 games between HR #12 & 13, 6/14 through 7/6, and hit just 1 HR in 28 games between 6/15 & 7/21 ... from 7/6 to 30, 18 games, went 25/65, .385 BA with 18 RBIs raising overall BA from .222 to .253 ... had just 13 RBIs in 28 August games, 30/104, .288 BA, ending the month at .261 ... had just 2 hits in September's first 7 games (2/23, .087 BA), with average falling to .253, but from 9/11 to season's end went 29/94, .309 BA with 4 HRs, 21 RBIs to end at .262 ... his .262 BA was the lowest of his professional career ... his total of 148 hits was his fewest full season total since getting 139 in 1976 ... 77 walks were most since receiving 79 passes in 1980 ... broke 100 strikeout mark for the first time in his career—his previous high had been 96 K's in '74 and '85 ... went hitless in 5 straight games on 2 occasions: 5/25 to 5/30, 0/13; and 9/3 to 9/9, 0/17 (longest 0-fer) of '86 ... appeared as DH in 6 games, going 2/18, .111 BA ... was 1/7 with a walk in 8 pinch-hitting appearances, .143 BA ... led Yankee outfielders with 9 assists ... went 104 games between 2nd and 3rd errors of '86—had 2 errors in first 9 games of season, and 3 in his last 42 games (none in between) ... was 48/161, .298 BA with runners in scoring position ... scored 4 runs (matching '86 team high) 6/23 @ Boston ... knocked a pair of HRs 6/4 @ California ... his 6 RBIs on 5/17 vs. Seattle were a team single game high in '86 ... his 104 RBIs ranked 9th in the A.L. ... appeared in 10th straight All-Star game ... 1985—outstanding year at plate, with glove, and on basepaths ... A.L. top 10; 19 GWRBI, 2nd; 114 RBI, 3rd; 66 extra-base hits, T7th; 105 runs, 9th; 298 total bases, 10th ... scored 1000th career run, 7/26 @ Texas ... recorded 100+ RBIs (114) for 4th straight year—first Yankee since Yogi Berra (1953-'56) ... first Yankee to score 100+ runs in consecutive season since Mickey Mantle (1960-'61) ... first Yankee to record 100+ runs and RBIs since Joe DiMaggio (1941-'42) ... lost 17 spring training days, 3/17 to 4/2 with an infected left elbow requiring a 6-day hospital stay ... began year struggling at the plate, hitting .257 through April, and dropping to a season low .234, on 5/18 ... at this point began season high 13-game hitting streak, lasting through 6/1, raising BA 23 points (also had 10-game hitting streak, 7/9-7/22) ... went 36/105, .343 BA in June, driving BA up to .289 ... BA peaked at .300, 7/22 ... 7/23 to 8/18 went 18/96, .188 BA, overall BA dropping to .280 ... 19 SB most since '80 ... had only 5 HRs through 6/6 ... stole home 9/7 vs. Oakland ... appeared as DH for fourth time in career, 7/14 vs. Texas—first such appearance since '82 (also DH'd 7/29 @ Cleveland) ... made only PH appearance 6/12 vs. Toronto ... won fourth straight A.L. Gold Glove, sixth overall ... appeared in 9th consecutive All-Star game ... 1984—finished second to Don Mattingly in A.L. batting race with a career high .340 BA ... ended season 4th in A.L. with 193 hits & .393 OB%; 6th with 106 runs ... had career high 20 game hit streak, 8/17 to 9/8 ... had three 5-hit games in June, tying a record held by Ty Cobb ... won his 4th straight Sporting News Silver Bat Award ... named to A.L., UPI, & TSN All-Star teams ... 1983—led Yankees in games, at-bats, runs, hits, triples, homers, RBI, GWRBI, and walks ... finished second in A.L. with 21 GWRBI; 3rd with 116 RBI; 5th with 307 total bases; T5th with 32 HRs & 8 triples; 7th with .513 slugging pct.; and T8th with 99 runs ... named to 7th consecutive A.L. All-Star team, contributing 3 hits to a rare A.L. win ... selected A.L. Player of the Week the first two weeks in August ... on 8/4 @ Toronto he fatally beaned a seagull during between inning warm-ups and was charged by Toronto police with cruelty to animals—the charges were dropped the next day ... 1982—finished 2nd in A.L. with .560 slugging pct., and 3rd with 37 HR ... led Yankees with 106 RBI ... 37 HRs was his personal career high ... Joe DiMaggio is only Yankee righthanded batter to hit more HRs in a season (46 in '37 & 39 in '48) ... became 9th player to hit 30+ HRs in both leagues ... was named A.L. Player of the Month for September (.294 BA with 11 HRs, 22 RBIs, .661 slg.%) ... 1981—his first season as a Yankee, led team in games, at-bats, hits, total bases, doubles, RBI, GWRBI and sac flies ... hit first HR as Yankee 4/29 @ Detroit off Jack Morris ... hit first Yankee Stadium HR 5/23 off Rick Waits ... made his first appearance in post-season competition ... hit .284 in his 8 year career with San Diego ... his best season in N.L. was in '79, leading league with 118 RBIs & 333 total bases; 3rd with 34 HRs ... won first Gold Glove in '79 in addition to placing third in BBWAA N.L. MVP voting behind co-winners Keith Hernandez and Willie Stargell ... went right to the majors off University of Minnesota campus in 1973 ... hit safely in first 6 big league games ... has never played in minors ... in '76 led N.L. outfielders with 15 assists.

INSIDE THE PARK HOME RUNS AND TRIPLE PLAYS ... Ron Kittle had the Yankees' only inside the park home run in 1987, a two-run homer on June 29th at Toronto off John Cerutti off the right field fence in Exhibition Stadium ... it was his first career inside the park HR ... no Yankee opponent hit an inside the park home run in 1987 ... the last opponent to do so was the A's Dwayne Murphy at Oakland on September 1, 1986, a solo HR off Mike Armstrong ... Mickey Mantle's six inside the park homers are the most by a Yankee ... there were no triple plays in 1987 ... the Yankees have performed 21 triple plays in their history, the last one occurring on June 3, 1968 (Womack-Cox-Mantle) ... the last one against the Yankees occurred on May 3, 1985 vs. Kansas City (White-Balboni-Concepcion).

DENT, Russell E. (Bucky)

Manager

HEIGHT: 5-11 BATS: R BORN: Nov. 25, 1951, Savannah, GA
WEIGHT: 180 THROWS: R RESIDES: Boca Raton, FL

Drafted by the White Sox in the 1st round of the secondary phase of the 1970 June draft, Bucky played in the 1st major league game he ever saw in 1973. After 4 years in Chicago, he was acquired by the Yankees just prior to the start of the 1977 Championship season. In 1978, Dent won the East Division playoff game for the Yankees at Boston with a dramatic three-run homer off Mike Torrez, erasing a 2-run Red Sox lead. He went on to lead the Yankees in their 6-game World Series victory over the Dodgers, hitting .417 while earning the Most Valuable Player award for the Series. Bucky was traded to the Texas Rangers in August, 1982 and played there through 1983. In 1984, he had a short stint with the Columbus Clippers, before joining the Kansas City Royals for their stretch drive en route to the A.L. West title. Bucky managed at Ft. Lauderdale in 1985-86. His '86 club narrowly missed the playoffs by a .005 margin. Dent's '87 Clippers swept thru the International League playoffs (6-0) to capture the Governor's Cup. Bucky and his entire staff return to Columbus in 1988 to defend their title.

WILHELM, James Hoyt (Hoyt)

Pitching Coach

HEIGHT: 6-0 BATS: R BORN: July 23, 1926, Huntersville, NC
WEIGHT: 185 THROWS: R RESIDES: Sarasota, FL

Began pro career in 1942 for independent Mooresville, N.C., club, near hometown of Huntersville. Moved into Giants farm system in 1948 at Knoxville and reached big leagues in 1952. Remained in majors for next 21 years, retiring in 1972 at age 46—as baseball's all-time premier relief pitcher. Holds following major league career records—most games pitched (1,070), most games in relief (1,018), most innings in relief (1,870), most games finished (651), most wins in relief (124). Used as starter in middle of his career (1958-60) and hurled no-hitter for Orioles against Yankees in 1958. Also holds distinction of hitting homer in first major league at-bat (April 23, 1952). Participated in 1954 World Series with Giants and named to NL All-Star team in 1953 and 1970; named to AL All-Star team in 1959-61-62. Elected to Baseball Hall of Fame in January, 1985.

NO-HIT GAME: Baltimore vs. Yankees, 1-0, September 20, 1958 (at Baltimore).

QUESTIONS FREQUENTLY ASKED

QUALIFICATIONS FOR BATTING & SLUGGING CHAMPIONSHIP—The player with the highest batting average or slugging percentage, provided he is credited with as many or more total plate appearances in League Championship games as the number of games scheduled for each club, multiplied by 3.1 (502 plate appearances for a 162 game schedule). EXCEPTION: If there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances or official at-bats, whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of plate appearances or official at-bats, then that player shall be awarded the batting or slugging championship.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR PITCHING CHAMPIONSHIP—The pitcher with the lowest earned-run average, provided he has pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP—The individual fielding champion shall be the players with the highest fielding average at each position, provided: (1) A catcher must have participated as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season; (2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season; (3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION: If another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

PLAYER LIMITS—40, until Opening Day when the number must be reduced to no higher than 25 until September 1st, when it again becomes 40.

WAIVER AND DRAFT PRICE INFORMATION: Waiver Price $20,000
Major League Draft Price $50,000

TRADING DEADLINE—The "trading deadline" is now July 31. Waivers are required for any inter- or intra-Major League assignment during the period beginning August 1 and ending at 5 pm ET the day after the end of the season. During the other 10 months of the year, no waivers are required and trades may be made between clubs of both leagues at any time.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A SAVE—A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save if he is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club and he is not the winning pitcher and he enters the game with a lead of no more than 3-runs for at least one inning, or he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at-bat, or on deck, or he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A "ROOKIE"—A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (A) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues or (B) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a Major League club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

LEAGUE CURFEW—All night games must be called at 1:00 AM local time. If an inning is started prior to 1:00 AM local time, it can be completed. A game called at the end of a complete inning with the score tied after nine innings is a suspended game, to be resumed according to major league rules. Curfews shall be waived for the final series of the season in each of the two parks of the two contesting teams.

DISABLED LISTS

Supplemental (15-Day) .	Maximum: 2 players per club (one may be a pitcher)
Regular (21-Day).	Maximum: 3 players per club
Special (30-Day)	Maximum: 1 player per club (used only when Supplemental & Regular Lists are full)
Emergency (60-Day) . . .	Maximum: No limit on number of players (players carried on this list do not count against 40-man under control limit. If placed or transferred here after 8/1, player must remain through end of regular and post-seasons.)

"MAGIC NUMBER"—Determine number of games to be played . . . add 1 . . . subtract number of games ahead in loss column from closest opponent.

GAME WINNING RBI—Credit the game winning RBI to the player who drives in the run that gives his team a lead it never relinquishes.

DID YOU KNOW . . . that when Babe Ruth hit his 60 homers in 1927, 19 were made off lefthanders? He hit two grand slams and batted in 100 runs with his homers.

HOME RUNS, ONE MONTH . . . Babe Ruth hit 17 homers in September, 1927. Mickey Mantle hit 16 in May, 1956. Ruth had 15 in a month three times, DiMaggio once, and Maris once.

YANKEES ON THE AIR

Yankee baseball will be broadcast for the 50th consecutive season in 1988. WPIX-TV (Channel 11) will be the New York City television outlet for the 38th straight season, while WABC Radio (770 AM) is leading the Yankee radio network as the flagship station for the eighth straight year. A network covering 12 states also participates in the Yankees' TV and radio coverage. SportsChannel is the Yankee pay cable television outlet for the tenth straight year in the tri-state area, and Yankee games also will be broadcast in Spanish to Latin America for the 19th straight season. These comprehensive broadcast outlets insure that Yankee baseball will be one of the most widely available sports events in the country.

The popular duo of Phil Rizzuto and Bill White will handle the club's telecasts on WPIX-TV, Hank Greenwald and Tommy Hutton will pair on the club's broadcasts on WABC Radio, while Ken Harrelson will handle the microphone duties on the club's cablecasts on SportsChannel, and he will be joined by former Yankee great Mickey Mantle on selected cablecasts.

PHIL RIZZUTO, the greatest shortstop in Yankee history, is in his 32nd season as a Yankee broadcaster. The 1950 American League MVP moved into the broadcast booth immediately following his playing career (1941-56) in 1957, giving him 48 consecutive seasons affiliated with the Yankees.

BILL WHITE, former star first baseman with the Giants, Cardinals, and Phillies (1956-69), who played in six All-Star Games and won seven Gold Gloves, is now in his 18th season broadcasting Yankee baseball.

HANK GREENWALD starts his second season as a Yankee radio announcer, but is no stranger to baseball broadcasts. He spent the previous eight years as the television and radio voice of the San Francisco Giants and has handled the play-by-play of such varied events as Golden State Warrior and University of San Francisco basketball and Syracuse University football.

TOMMY HUTTON is in his second season on the Yankee broadcast team after spending the previous five seasons as a broadcaster for the Montreal Expos. Before beginning his announcing career, he spent 12 seasons as a first baseman for the Dodgers, Phillies, Blue Jays, and Expos.

KEN "HAWK" HARRELSON, one of the most colorful personalities in baseball, returns for his second season of Yankee broadcasts after serving as Executive Vice President—Baseball Operations for the Chicago White Sox. He also spent ten years broadcasting White Sox and Red Sox games following a nine-year major league career that was highlighted by helping the Red Sox to the American League pennant in 1967.

MICKEY MANTLE, one of the greatest and most popular players in major league history, returns for his third season on selected SportsChannel cablecasts. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974, he holds countless Yankee team records and is a three-time Most Valuable Player selection, including 1956, when he won the Triple Crown. For more information on Mantle, see page 65.
